SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF DOMINION’S CURRENTLY PENDING MOTION TO DISQUALIFY AND MOTION TO ENFORCE PROTECTIVE AND STATUS QUO ORDERS

Plaintiffs US Dominion Inc., Dominion Voting Systems, Inc., and Dominion Voting Systems Corporation (collectively, “Dominion”) file this supplemental brief in support of their pending Emergency Motion for Protective Relief and to Disqualify Counsel (Dkt. 75) and Motion to Enforce the Protective and Status Quo Orders (Dkt. 108) because Defendant Patrick Byrne and his counsel Stefanie Lambert appear to have violated this Court’s orders yet again.

Previously unknown to Dominion or this Court, a Colorado attorney named John Case, who is working with Ms. Lambert on Mr. Byrne’s defense in this case, has reviewed Dominion Discovery Material.<sup>1</sup> Mr. Case is also currently defending Mesa County, CO clerk Tina Peters on criminal charges. In a recent public filing in that criminal case, he purported to reference and incorrectly characterized Dominion Discovery Material. Mr. Case is the same attorney who subpoenaed the production of Dominion Discovery Material from Ms. Lambert, as set forth in Dominion's Motion to Enforce (Dkt. 108). Yet neither Mr. Byrne nor Ms. Lambert notified the Court of these facts, just as neither has done anything to stop Mr. Case.

<sup>1</sup> “Discovery Material” is defined in the Protective Order as “documents, testimony (in any form whether by affidavit, declaration, or deposition), exhibits, transcripts, written discovery requests, interrogatory responses, responses to requests for admission, responses to requests for documents, and any other information or material produced, given, or exchanged, including any information contained therein or derived therefrom.” Dkt. 79 at 2; Dkt. 46 at 1 (same).

Ms. Lambert's and Mr. Byrne's seemingly collusive efforts to defy orders entered by this Court are harmful to Dominion. They are also destructive to the integrity of the judicial process, including to Dominion's ability to litigate this case. Based on the entirety of the record to date, as supplemented by these additional facts, Dominion asks the Court to disqualify Ms. Lambert and enter the other protective relief detailed in Dominion's proposed order on its Motion to Disqualify (Dkt. 75-24). Dominion also asks the Court to grant Dominion's Motion to Enforce the Protective and Status Quo Orders (Dkt. 108-24). Any lesser remedy will not suffice.

I.

This Court is familiar with the record of Ms. Lambert's and Mr. Byrne's non-compliance with the Status Quo Order and Protective Order, and Dominion incorporates that extensive record by reference. See Dkt. 75, Motion to Disqualify (Mar. 15, 2024); Dkt. 82, Reply in Support of Motion to Disqualify (Mar. 22, 2024); Dkt. 102, Supplemental Declaration of Davida Brook (May 17, 2024); Dkt. 105, Response to Order of Court (May 21, 2024); Dkt. 108, Motion to Enforce (July 5, 2024).

Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert appear to continue to violate both orders. Last week, Dominion learned that yet another person working with Ms. Lambert—other than those Ms. Lambert previously disclosed to this Court—accessed Dominion Discovery Material. This happened even though at the March 18 hearing, the Court told Ms. Lambert in no uncertain terms, “I am going to order that no one have access to those documents until we can sort this issue out.”

Ex. 1, March 18, 2024 Hearing Transcript (“March 18 Tr.”), 54:23-24. And at two separate hearings, the Court and counsel for Dominion sought to get a complete picture from Ms. Lambert as to who is working with her on this case and who has access to Dominion’s documents. See, e.g., Ex. 1, March 18 Tr., 31:15-37:17; Ex. 2, May 16, 2024 Hearing Transcript (“May 16 Tr.”), 14:8-15:21.<sup>2</sup> Yet, at neither the March 18 hearing nor May 16 hearing, nor in any brief, has Ms. Lambert disclosed that she is working with Mr. Case or that he accessed Discovery Material.

On June 10, 2024, while representing Ms. Peters on criminal charges (“the Peters Criminal Case”), Mr. Case made a filing that attached a declaration admitting that he “reviewed” emails produced by Dominion in this case. In his filing, Mr. Case also purported to discuss the contents of Dominion’s emails. Mr. Case made this filing in opposition to a motion to quash the subpoena to testify and produce documents his office had served on Dominion’s former General Counsel Mike Frontera.

Mr. Case is the same attorney who signed the subpoena to testify and produce documents issued in the Peters Criminal Case to Ms. Lambert. See Dkt. 108-4, Subpoena to Lambert. He also signed the subpoena to testify issued in the Peters Criminal Case to Dominion’s CEO John Poulos. And as recounted in Dominion’s Motion to Enforce, Mr. Poulos was served with that subpoena last month as he entered a building to be deposed in this case, and Mr. Byrne posted a video of Mr. Poulos being served to his X account. See Dkt. 108, Motion to Enforce at 5-8.

<sup>2</sup> At the March 18 hearing, the Court questioned Ms. Lambert extensively about all known locations of Dominion Discovery Material. At that time, Ms. Lambert responded that she was not aware of any location she had not previously disclosed. Ex. 1, March 18 Tr., 36:18-23, 37:12-17 (“THE COURT: Okay. All right. Any other places that you think that any of this confidential information is located either between you or your counsel -- you or your client of which you’re aware? MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. Not that I’m aware of that I can recall at this time.”).

Despite the fact that Ms. Lambert clearly knows Mr. Case, clearly knows Mr. Case accessed Dominion documents, and clearly knows about the filing in which Mr. Case (inaccurately) purported to describe what the documents show, she never told this Court about any of this.

Mr. Case’s statements in his July 10 filing are damning to Ms. Lambert, Mr. Byrne, and his legal team. Mr. Case admits he has “already seen many of the documents relevant to Clerk Peters’ defense that were produced by Dominion Voting Systems Inc. in case number 1:21-cv-02131 (CJN), U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, captioned U.S. Dominion Inc., et al v. Byrne.” Ex. 3, Response to Motion to Quash Subpoena, People of the State of Colorado v. Tina Peters, Case No. 22CR371 (July 10, 2024) (“Response to MTQ”) at ¶ 2.

Then, in an accompanying declaration, he admits he is “assisting Stefanie Lambert in her defense of Patrick Byrne” in this case, has signed the Protective Order’s Undertaking, and has “reviewed emails produced by Dominion in 1:21-cv-02131.” Ex. 4, Declaration of John Case in Support of Response to Motion to Quash (“Decl. of John Case”) at ¶ 3.

He then falsely asserts that the documents somehow “corroborated” long-debunked conspiracy theories, inter alia, that Dominion’s voting systems “are capable of manipulating ballots and vote tabulations, which violates federal and state law,” and “show, in [his] opinion, that Dominion was aware it was violating election laws.” Ex. 4, Decl. of John Case at ¶ 2.

On July 11, 2024, as soon as Dominion’s team learned of Mr. Case’s filing, Dominion’s counsel emailed Ms. Lambert seeking additional information:

Please answer each of these questions in line, below. If you need to consult with Mr. Case, we trust you will do so as apparently you are working together.

1. Who is Mr. Case?
2. How long has he been "assisting" you in the Dominion v. Byrne case?
3. Provide his signed undertaking.
4. What Dominion documents has he accessed?
5. When did he access them?
6. Via what means? (Document vendor, a download of files, something else?)
7. Is there anyone else assisting you in the Dominion v. Byrne case?
8. If yes, please disclose them and answer questions 3-6 on their behalf as well.
9. We need answers to these questions, in writing, before close of business today.

Ex. 5, July 11, 2024 Email from Davida Brook to Stefanie Lambert ("July 11 Brook Email").

When she replied, Ms. Lambert tellingly did not profess to be unaware of Mr. Case's access to Discovery Material, but instead simply refused to provide any of the information Dominion requested:

Already, the Colorado court has rejected the merits of Mr. Case's opposition to the motion to quash the subpoena to Mr. Frontera. On July 12, the Colorado court granted the motion to quash and noted, "I do not find the requested materials are evidentiary or relevant." Ex. 6, Order Re: Motion to Quash SDT (filed July 12, 2024) ("Order on MTQ") at 4. The Court identified as a “reoccurring theme” Mr. Case’s use of the criminal proceeding to argue conspiracy theories against Dominion:

The issue herein seems to be a reoccurring theme: Defendant wanting to make the case about the security of voting machines, purported collusion between Dominion and government authorities, and the like. This Court has yet to see an evidentiary basis for the admission of this type of evidence. And as I have said before, it appears the only basis for the admission of such evidence is not to show that Defendant didn’t do what she is charged with, but rather to make the focus of the trial something separate from what the jury will be charged with deciding. This makes the information sought irrelevant, misleading, and likely to confuse the issues.

Accordingly, the motion to quash is GRANTED.

Ex. 6, Order on MTQ at 5-6. But the Colorado court’s order quashing the subpoena to Mr. Frontera will not stop Ms. Lambert from voluntarily complying with the subpoena to produce documents and testify that Mr. Case served on her for Dominion Discovery Material. That possibility is the primary focus of Dominion’s pending Motion to Enforce. See Dkt. 108, Motion to Enforce.

Dominion’s concerns are well founded. The public’s response to Mr. Case’s mischaracterization of Dominion Discovery Material in his filing was quick. For example, one popular X account posted Mr. Case’s declaration online, noting it was obtained by Yehuda Miller:

Ex. 7, MJTruthUltra, <https://twitter.com/MJTruthUltra/status/1811755146633675036>.

The post has over 400k views. Individuals quickly responded to the MJTruthUltra posting with comments such as “Hang them all for treason JMO...” and other anti-Dominion sentiment:

Ex. 7, MJTruthUltra, <https://twitter.com/MJTruthUltra/status/1811755146633675036>.

Nor did the events of last week end with those postings. At 2:06pm CT Friday, July 12, Dominion’s counsel received an email from Ms. Lambert stating that she had “received a request for the transcript of Mr. Poulos testimony at deposition” from a “Michigan State Representative.”

Ex. 8, July 12, 2024 Email from Stefanie Lambert to Davida Brook (“July 12 Lambert Email”).

Within ten minutes, Dominion’s counsel Jonathan Ross responded, stating, “We object to your sharing any Discovery Material in this litigation with anyone, as both the protective order and the Court’s other orders prohibit. That includes Mr[.] Poulos’s deposition transcript and video and any other transcripts/videos.” Ex. 9, July 12, 2024 Email from Jonathan Ross to Stefanie Lambert

(“July 12 Ross Email”) at 2-3. Hearing nothing, Mr. Ross followed up again at 3:41pm CT:

“Please confirm you will not share.” Id. at 2.

Ms. Lambert replied, incorrectly, that this was “not a person requesting the transcript in his individual capacity. This is a request by the government. The Michigan legislature.” Id. at 2. As explained below, that was untrue. Regardless, Dominion’s counsel asked again that Ms. Lambert confirm she would abide by the Protective Order. Ms. Lambert’s next response was a demand that Dominion “advise by close of business if Dominion intends to review the transcript and de-designate it as confidential pursuant to the protective order.” Id. at 1. Mr. Ross’s answer again reminded Ms. Lambert of the Court’s orders that prohibit her from sharing Discovery Material regardless of whether designated “confidential”; designated the transcript as confidential to avoid any confusion; and, for a third time, requested Ms. Lambert’s confirmation that she would “not disseminate it.” Id. Ms. Lambert did not respond.

Of course, Ms. Lambert’s statement that the Michigan legislature requested Mr. Poulos’s deposition transcript is false. The request came from Michigan State Representative James DeSana. Ex. 8, July 12 Lambert Email. The difference is important. Mr. DeSana does not say he is making a request for the Michigan legislature. He claims to need the transcript for his proposed “criminal complaint against John Poulos.” And in fact, Mr. DeSana and a few other current and former state legislators already asked that a criminal complaint be brought against Mr. Poulos and, nearly three months ago, the Michigan Attorney General declined their request. Ex. 10, Press Release: AG Nessel Rejects Call from Conspiracist Legislators for Renewed 2020 Election Investigation, Apr. 25, 2024, <https://www.michigan.gov/ag/news/press-releases/2024/04/25/ag-nessel-rejects-call-from-conspiracist-legislators-for-renewed-2020-election-investigation>.

Regardless, Ms. Lambert full well knows that a request by the government does not vitiate this Court’s orders, including because she asked about precisely this scenario at the May 16 hearing, and the Court made clear that she must “follow the mechanism in the protective order”:

MS. LAMBERT: Your Honor, if Dr. Byrne is requested by Congress or the DOJ or law enforcement to cooperate with an investigation, how should he proceed?

THE COURT: Well, if it involves discovery material in this case, follow the mechanism in the protective order for bringing it to the Court's attention, and, if it's confidential, you can seek to file something before this Court.

But I'll just be very clear, some of the actions that appear to have been taken in the name of law enforcement aren't entirely supported, so that's why I'm saying you need to follow the strict guidelines of Judge Nichols' order and come to the Court if there are any such requests.

MS. LAMBERT: Thank you, Judge.

Ex. 2, May 16 Tr., 62:12-24 (emphasis added).

Lest there be doubt, this Court confirmed the same in its July 12, 2024 Minute Order:

MINUTE ORDER: As the Court has repeatedly ordered, Counsel and Parties are expressly prohibited from sharing any discovery materials subject to the Protective Order, ECF No. [79], outside of this case unless expressly authorized by this Court or in the relevant orders. To avoid any doubt, Defendant and Defendant's Counsel are expressly prohibited from sharing with any third party the deposition transcript or testimony that is the subject of the Parties' emails to the Court today pending briefing and further order of the Court. There are no exceptions. Violation of this Order may subject the party or counsel to the full range of available sanctions, including potential sanctions for contempt of court. SO ORDERED. Signed by Magistrate Judge Moxila A. Upadhyaya on 07/12/2024

July 12, 2024 Minute Order, U.S. Dominion Inc. v. Patrick Byrne, 1:21-cv-02131-CJN-MAU (emphasis added).

II.

These events indicate at least four apparent violations by Mr. Byrne and his counsel of the letter and spirit of the Court's orders, for which they must be held to account:

1. Status Quo Order, Paragraph 6: None of Mr. Byrne's attorneys or Mr. Byrne notified the Court that Mr. Case accessed Dominion documents, which means they failed for an unknown period of time to abide by the Status Quo Order's requirement at Paragraph 6 that

Mr. Byrne and his counsel “immediately notify the Court” of any “Dominion Litigation Documents, existing in any form whatsoever” that were “not already accounted to the Court on March 18, 202[4]” discovered to be in the possession any “associate” or “affiliate” of Ms. Lambert. Dkt. 77, Status Quo Order at ¶ 6 (emphasis added). The language of the Court’s order would include Mr. Case, who is supposedly “assisting” Ms. Lambert “in her defense of Patrick Byrne.” Ex. 4, Decl. of John Case at ¶ 3.

2. Status Quo and Protective Orders, Paragraph 1: Despite admitting that he has signed the Protective Order’s Undertaking as part of his assistance to Ms. Lambert with Mr. Byrne’s representation, Mr. Case is purporting to use information about Discovery Material in a public filing outside this litigation. Ex. 3, Response to MTQ at ¶ 2; Ex. 4, Decl. of John Case at ¶ 2. Not only does his false assertion of what that Discovery Material “shows” violate the spirit of Paragraph 1 of the Status Quo Order, it also reflects a concerted effort by Mr. Byrne’s legal team to defy Paragraph 1 of the governing Protective Order. That provision states that “no Receiving Party will provide Discovery Material to any person or entity (including for any other litigation) or make any Discovery Material public except as permitted by this Order and in this Litigation.” Dkt. 79, Protective Order at ¶ 1.

3. Protective Order, Paragraph 27: Further, contrary to Paragraph 27 of the Protective Order, Ms. Lambert has not taken “reasonable efforts to prevent disclosure” by “each unauthorized person who receives the information.” Dkt. 79, Protective Order at ¶ 27. Having obtained access to leaked Discovery Material, Mr. Case then publicly stated that at trial in the Peters Criminal Case he “intend[s] to offer as exhibits emails authored by Dominion officers . . . .” He “understand[s] that these emails were produced by Dominion and its counsel in U.S. Dominion Inc. et al v. Byrne.” Ex. 4, Decl. of John Case at ¶ 13. Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne have not raised any objection—in the criminal proceeding or to this Court—to Mr. Case doing so. They had a duty to do so under Paragraph 27 of the Protective Order, just as they had a duty under Paragraph 26 of the Protective Order to object to the subpoena Ms. Lambert received from Mr. Case, as detailed in Dominion’s Motion to Enforce. See Dkt. 108, Motion to Enforce.

4. Status Quo Order, Paragraph 1: Finally, it appears Ms. Lambert may have understated to the Court at the March 18 hearing the universe of those who had access to Dominion Discovery Material. Alternatively, it is possible Mr. Case later accessed leaked documents, possibly under the guise of “assisting” Ms. Lambert for Mr. Byrne. We do not know which is the case because Ms. Lambert has not informed the Court or Dominion about the facts of Mr. Case’s access and instead has (improperly) claimed “privilege / work product” over that information. Ex. 5, July 11 Brook Email. By whatever means Mr. Case accessed the documents, Ms. Lambert violated the spirit of Paragraph 1 of the Status Quo Order because she is allowing a member of Mr. Byrne’s legal team to “shar[e], distribut[e], provid[e] access to or discuss[] any Discovery Material received in connection with” this case. Dkt. 77, Status Quo Order at ¶1.

Simply put, Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne both confirmed to this Court that they understood and would comply with the Court’s orders. See Ex. 1, March 18 Tr., 44:6-46:12 (Ms. Lambert promising the Court she will “come directly to the Court” instead of violating the Protective Order); Ex. 2, May 16 Tr., 61:5-62:4 (Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne re-confirming they understood the Status Quo Order and would comply); see also Dkt. 84, Verifications. Yet not once over the past four months has Ms. Lambert informed the Court about Mr. Case or updated any of her prior statements. She has had ample opportunity to do so—including in hearings and as part of her various written submissions. Instead, it appears that she and Mr. Byrne have found brazen new ways to try to defy the Court’s orders.

III.

Dominion respectfully asks that this Court disqualify Ms. Lambert, grant the other protective relief Dominion has sought in its Motion to Disqualify, and enforce compliance with the Protective and Status Quo Orders.

It is appropriate that a litigant's choice of counsel may be overridden in just these circumstances where "the client's selection . . . impede[s] or disrupt[s] the orderly administration of justice." Douglas v. United States, 488 A.2d 121, 143 (D.C. Ct. of App. 1985) (quoting Harling v. United States, 387 A.2d 1101, 1104 (D.C. Ct. of App. 1978)). The history of the case demonstrates that "truly egregious misconduct [is] likely to infect future proceedings." Koller v. Richardson-Merrell, Inc., 737 F.2d 1038, 1056 (D.C. Cir. 1984), vacated on other grounds, 472 U.S. 424 (1985); see Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 44–45 (1991) (a "primary aspect" of a court's inherent power "is the ability to fashion an appropriate sanction for conduct which abuses the judicial process"). Significantly, this Court already warned Ms. Lambert that evidence of violations of the Status Quo Order would be taken into account in support of Dominion's Motion to Disqualify: "I want to make it very clear that going forward if I see any evidence that violates this order, I'm going to take that into account in my final resolution." Ex. 2, May 16 Tr., 60:24-61:2 (emphasis added).

Here, Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert's violations and attempts to circumvent the Court's orders have been a danger and a distraction. And they have further confirmed exactly what Dominion feared and predicted in the May 16 hearing on the pending Motion to Disqualify Ms. Lambert:

Counsel for Dominion: Your Honor, I'll be blunt. My concern is this: If she's not removed from this case, all that will have happened is they will have gotten smarter about how to do this leak in the future.

Ex. 2, May 16 Tr., 24:21-24.

A lesser remedy will not suffice. See In re BellSouth, 334 F.3d 941, 963 (11th Cir. 2003) (upholding the disqualification of defendant's counsel after finding that the lawyer, a close relative of the judge, had been brought on for the sole purpose of forcing the judge's recusal).

The other relief Dominion has sought in its Motion to Disqualify is also vitally important as Dominion needs to understand the extent of Mr. Byrne's and Ms. Lambert's misdeeds, which is a gating issue to containing them. For example, we now know that at least Mr. Byrne, Ms. Lambert, and Mr. Case appear to have colluded with the wrongful purpose of disseminating Dominion Discovery Material. Their actions reinforce the need not only for disqualification but also for all the protective relief Dominion sought in its Proposed Order on its Motion to Disqualify (Dkt. 75-24), including a full accounting, in the form of sworn affidavits from Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert, that provide:

- The date of any fee agreement between Lambert and Byrne and the scope of representation or, if no such agreement exists, the date on which Lambert and Byrne understand that a lawyer/client relationship;
- A complete and accurate list of all Dominion-produced documents and information Byrne reviewed and the method and date of access;
- An accounting from Byrne's outside vendor showing what documents Byrne and or Lambert accessed, on what date, and whether they were downloaded; as well as any other data the vendor indicates may be helpful to Dominion's or this Court's efforts to understand the breach;
- A complete and accurate list of all Dominion-produced documents and information Lambert received and the method and date of access;
- An account of every step Lambert, Byrne's prior counsel from the McGlinchey firm, has already undertaken or that is underway to determine the scope of the breach and to ensure it is not continuing; and
- An accounting attesting (i) to whom Lambert and/or Byrne leaked, released, or otherwise disclosed documents or information protected by the Protective Order (including in court filings in any cases outside of this case); (ii) how and when they provided it; (iii) every occasion on which they did so; and (iv) for each such instance, what specifically was leaked, released, or otherwise disclosed.

Dkt. 75-24, Proposed Order on Motion to Disqualify.

Finally, enforcement of this Court's Status Quo Order and Protective Order is necessary and appropriate to stop Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne from continuing to find new ways to try to disseminate Dominion Discovery Material and to protect the integrity of the judicial process.

IV.

Dominion respectfully and urgently requests that this Court enter an order (1) disqualifying Ms. Lambert and granting the protective relief sought in Dominion's Motion to Disqualify (Dkt. 75-24), (2) enforcing the Court's Status Quo Order and Protective Order (Dkt. 108-24), and (3) granting supplemental relief to account for the new factual developments in this filing.

1 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Good afternoon, your Honor.
2 This is Civil Case No. 21-445, U.S. Dominion, Inc., et al.,
3 versus My Pillow, Inc., et al.

4 This is Civil Case No. 21-2131, U.S. Dominion,
5 Inc., et al., versus Byrne; Civil Case No. 21-2130, U.S.
6 Dominion, Inc., et al., versus Herring Networks, Inc.,
7 et al.; and Civil Case No. 21-40, U.S. Dominion, Inc., et
8 al., versus Powell, et al.

9 All four matters are set for a status conference.
10 Parties, please introduce yourselves for the 11 record, stating with Plaintiffs' counsel.

12 MS. BROOK: Good afternoon, your Honor. May it
13 please the Court, Davida Brook of Susman, Godfrey on behalf
14 of the Dominion Plaintiffs. And with me are my colleagues
15 Stephen Shackelford, Jonathan Ross and Christina Dieckmann.

16 THE COURT: Good afternoon, counsel.

17 MR. CASARINO: Good afternoon, your Honor. Marc
18 Casarino of Kennedys CMK on behalf of the Powell Defendants.
19 And I have with me my partner, Joshua Mooney.

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

21 MR. KAPLAN: Good afternoon, your Honor. Abraham
22 Kaplan of the law firm Parker, Daniels, Kibort on behalf of 23 My Pillow and Mike Lindell.

24 And I'm joined by counsel Chris Kachouroff and 25 Deborah McIlhenny of the law firm McSweeney, Cynkar &

1 Kachouroff, whose admission before this Court is pending.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Good afternoon, counsel.

3 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Good afternoon, your Honor.

4 Stefanie Lambert Junttila appearing on behalf of Mr. Byrne.

5 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Ms. Lambert.

6 MR. TOBIN: Good morning, your Honor. David Tobin
7 on behalf of Defending the Republic.

8 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Ms. Tobin.

9 MR. TOBIN: Nice to see you, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I believe I know you from a prior 11 life.

12 MR. TOBIN: I believe so.

13 MR. SINGER: Good afternoon, your Honor. Greg 14 Singer on behalf of Defendant Christina Bobb.

16 Mr. Babcock?

17 MR. BABCOCK: Good afternoon, your Honor. Chip
18 Babcock representing Herring Networks and Robert Herring, 19 Sr., Charles Herring and Chanel Rion, who we refer to as the 20 OAN Defendants.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. BABCOCK: And I've got some bad news.

23 I know how much you appreciate listening to me.

24 But today, my partners Minoo Blaesche and Jonathan Neerman
25 will be addressing the Court. And hopefully I'll sit in the 1 back row and keep my mouth shut.

2 THE COURT: That would be a great event if that
3 were to happen.

4 MR. BABCOCK: I knew you would approve of that way
5 of proceeding. Thank you, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

7 Thank you, counsel.

8 Does everyone who is going to be speaking today
9 have a seat at counsel table? Or are you all comfortable?
10 Okay. Mr. Neerman? Okay.

11 All right. Anyone else?

12 Okay. It's my preference to try to have just one
13 counsel per party addressing the Court. And we're going to 14 do this in a very orderly fashion today. I know there's a 15 lot of filings that have been happening and some issues that 16 the parties wish to bring to my attention. We'll do it, as 17 I mentioned, very orderly. And I'm not necessarily going to 18 be hearing extended argument today, but we will set a 19 procedure for how to handle some of these matters going 20 forward.

21 So the first issue on the agenda just by virtue of 22 the fact that it's the most recently raised is Dominion's
23 request for emergency relief pursuant to an alleged 24 violation of the protective order.

25 So, Ms. Brook, I'll have you approach, and just

1 very briefly you can address it; and I'll give Ms. Lambert
2 an opportunity to respond as well.

3 Again, I'm not having full argument, but what I
4 would like to know from the parties -- and I'll have
5 questions for both of you -- is while we take this matter
6 under advisement what, if any, interim relief is Dominion
7 seeking, so that the Court can take up this issue in an 8 orderly fashion and give both sides an opportunity to fully 9 address this in oral argument.

10 MS. BROOK: Thank you, your Honor.

11 Again, Davida brook on behalf of Dominion. I'll 12 try to keep my remarks to a few minutes or less.

13 Your Honor, it has been nearly four years. When 14 does it stop? Dominion brought these very lawsuits to stop
15 the spread of false information about it, false information
16 which transformed a previously unknown voting machine
17 company into a household name that more than half of our 18 country associates with treason. False information that 19 gutted Dominion's business, false information that resulted 20 in horrific threats to Dominion employees, that prompted an 21 armed man to attempt to gain access to Dominion's Denver
22 offices to do God knows what.

23 These wrongs are what these lawsuits were designed 24 to address, to stop the lies, to end the threats of 25 violence. And yet Patrick Byrne and his attorney,

1 Ms. Lambert, are now using these very lawsuits to perpetuate
2 more wrongs against Dominion. They are using documents
3 produced in this litigation to spread yet more lies and to 4 cause yet more harm.

5 More, Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert are saying it
6 wasn't them. To the contrary, rather than taking the 7 weekend to respond to Dominion's request for an accounting
8 of who they shared Dominion's information with and when,
9 they spent it on the internet proudly taking credit for what 10 they'd done.

11 They have made clear, including by virtue of the 12 responsive brief that was filed just before this hearing, 13 which we have had an opportunity to review, that they took 14 these actions intentionally, that they don't care that this 15 Court's order provides for the contrary and that they have 16 no intention of stopping, regardless of what it means to our 17 national trust in our elections or the safety of Dominion
18 employees and anyone associated with Dominion.

19 There should be zero tolerance for these acts.
20 Zero.

21 So as our motion put forth, we are asking that
22 Stefanie Lambert be promptly disqualified from this case.
23 And it needs to be prompt, because her acts are continuing.

24 THE COURT: Disqualification is a severe remedy.
25 Under the law of this circuit, the Court does not consider

1 disqualification lightly, doesn't take that lightly. And
2 however promptly Dominion may wish for the Court to consider
3 a motion to disqualify, it's something that the attorney
4 who's being sought to be disqualified has the right to 5 respond and be heard.

6 And, you know, I don't think this is something
7 that the Court can do on a day's notice.

8 MS. BROOK: Dominion agrees, your Honor. We agree
9 with everything your Honor just said, including that 10 disqualification is a severe remedy and that it shouldn't be 11 handed out lightly. But if ever there was a case that 12 called for it, Dominion thinks this is the case.

13 The reason for which we think that the action does 14 have to be prompt -- and we recognize it's not going to be 15 today -- is because the bad acts are continuing.

16 THE COURT: Is the sole basis for Dominion's
17 request to disqualify Ms. Lambert the violation of the 18 protective order or are there -- the alleged violation of 19 the protective order or are there other reasons?

20 MS. BROOK: I would say, your Honor, as the 21 numerous alleged violations of the protective order, which 22 we think are ongoing. As recently as the last 24 hours, 23 sheriff Dar Leaf, who Ms. Lambert has admitted to giving the 24 Dominion documents to, has essentially created a Twitter
25 account, because he did not have one prior to these leaks,

1 and he's made approximately 40 posts featuring Dominion's
2 documents. And these tweets have been viewed -- I checked
3 before entering the courthouse -- more than 150,000 times.
4 And we all know what's going to happen next in the comments
5 and the comments and comments to those posts.

6 So for all of these reasons, as well as the 7 reasons articulated in the motion, we are asking the Court
8 to enter an order for disqualification after full
9 consideration of the issues as well as, as the Court
10 mentioned in its opening remarks, some interim relief to 11 protect the status quo in the meantime.

12 And to answer your Honor's question directly, the 13 specific interim relief that we are seeking is laid out in 14 the proposed order that we filed and provided to the Court
15 on Friday. And I'm happy to go through those specific 16 things now, if it would be helpful.

17 THE COURT: Is there a reason you did not file
18 that -- file that motion under seal, as Ms. Lambert alleges
19 must be done under the protective order?

20 MS. BROOK: I disagree with Ms. Lambert's reading
21 of that provision of the protective order and frankly most 22 of the protective order, your Honor.

23 The provision she cites says that if you are 24 challenging whether or not a document was appropriately
25 marked "confidential," then of course you shouldn't blast

1 that document publicly throughout the world.

2 This is not a case where Dominion brought a motion
3 because Mr. Byrne or any of the other Defendants in this
4 case stamped something as confidential or AEO and Dominion
5 wanted to challenge that, and therefore in putting the 6 document before the Court should absolutely have filed it
7 under seal so that the Court has an opportunity to consider
8 the confidentiality designation before it becomes public.

9 This is a situation where Dominion was addressing
10 a breach of the protective order relating to Dominion's own
11 documents that have already been made public. The cat's out
12 of the bag.

13 THE COURT: Well, why don't you recount what
14 Dominion would request that the Court order as interim
15 relief pending the resolution of the motions.

16 Now, the motion for disqualification, having just 17 been filed, has not been referred to me. There is a
18 question as to whether the breach of the protective order --
19 I do think that likely falls within a discovery issue that 20 Judge Nichols has referred. But as of today, the motion for 21 disqualification has not yet been referred to me.

22 But in light of the allegation that -- and I will
23 hear -- as I said, I will hear from Ms. Lambert and give her
24 a full and fair opportunity to respond. If alleged 25 confidential information has been disseminated, there should

1 be a way to prevent any further bleeding, so to speak, or 2 further dissemination pending a resolution on the motion for 3 sanctions or the motion for disqualification.

4 So what does Dominion propose for the Court's
5 consideration?

6 MS. BROOK: Thank you, your Honor.

7 And Dominion of course will take up the issue in 8 whatever way the Court prefers.

9 Dominion has suggested six specific things in 10 order to maintain the status quo while the Court takes up
11 the question of whether or not Ms. Lambert should be 12 disqualified.

13 The first is, we have asked for the date of any 14 fee agreement between Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne and the 15 scope of representation or, if no such agreement exists, the 16 date on which Lambert and Byrne understood that a
17 lawyer-client relationship exists. And this is relevant to 18 whether or not it was proper to share the documents with 19 Ms. Lambert in the first place under the protective order.

20 THE COURT: Well, that's not going to -- that 21 doesn't help you get to stopping any additional 22 dissemination.

23 MS. BROOK: No, your Honor. Our goals with these 24 six specific requests are twofold. One is, as your Honor
25 pointed out, to stop any additional dissemination.

1           The other is to fully understand what went wrong
2           so that, as the Court evaluates Dominion's request for 3           sanctions and as Dominion previewed in its motion, to the 4           extent Dominion seeks additional requests for sanctions,
5           whether relating to Ms. Lambert or others, we have the most 6           and best information possible.

7           THE COURT: Okay. Well, go ahead. But I don't
8           think that this is -- I don't think that that's -- I'm 9           looking at measures to try to stop further dissemination and 10          to try to understand where and in whose possession 11          confidential information currently is.

12          So --

13          MS. BROOK: Let me focus on those, then, your 14          Honor.

15          So we have asked for a complete and accurate list
16          of all Dominion-produced documents and information that 17          Patrick Byrne or Ms. Lambert had access to.

18          We've asked for an accounting from Mr. Byrne's
19          outside vendor showing what documents he and Ms. Lambert had 20          access to, on what date, whether they were downloaded as 21          well as any other data the vendor indicates may be helpful
22          in understanding exactly the issue the Court just addressed.

23          We've asked for a complete and accurate list of 24          all Dominion-produced documents and information that 25          Ms. Lambert received and the method and date of access.

1           We've asked for an account of every step
2           Ms. Lambert or Mr. Byrne's prior counsel from the McGlinchey
3           firm has already undertaken or that is underway to determine 4           the scope of the breach and to ensure it is not continuing.

5           And we've asked for an attestation under oath from 6           both Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert for to whom Lambert and/or 7           Mr. Byrne leaked, released or otherwise disclosed documents 8           or information protected by the protective order, how and 9           when they provided it, every occasion on which they did so
10          and, for each such instance, what specifically was leaked,
11          released or otherwise disclosed.

12          As the Court knows from the briefing, we have also 13          sent letters to both the original outside document vendor
14          for Mr. Byrne and the current outside document vendor for 15          Mr. Byrne. Our understanding is that the documents are in 16          the process of being migrated from one outside vendor to the 17          other, asking them not to provide Ms. Lambert or Mr. Byrne
18          with access to those documents unless and until this Court
19          decides this issue.

20                 THE COURT: And about what's the volume of the 21                 documents?

22                 MS. BROOK: Dominion has produced more than a
23                 million documents in this case, your Honor.

24                 THE COURT: No, no. What's the volume of the 25                 documents that have been released to a third party as far as

1       you know?

2                   MS. BROOK: The short answer is, I don't know,
3 because despite the protective order requiring that such 4 information be shared if and when there is an alleged 5 breach, Ms. Lambert nor Mr. Byrne's prior counsel have not 6 provided that information.

7                   So what I do know, your Honor, from the public
8 tweeting is that I believe as of today -- and my team will
9 correct me if I have it wrong -- 2700 pages of Dominion's
10 confidential information have been publicly tweeted out.

11                   I will say that Sheriff Leaf -- sorry. I have my 12 little dyslexia. It's 2,173. I flipped the seven and the 13 one. 2,173 pages have been publicly tweeted. To be clear,
14 what Sheriff Leaf did is he literally made them available
15 for download via a Google Drive on the internet that people
16 can click on and download. So those 2,173 pages have been 17 shared God knows how many times at this point.

18                   And when Sheriff Leaf made that tweet, he referred 19 to it as the, quote, "first tranche."

20                   THE COURT: Okay. How could the Court do anything
21 to prevent that further dissemination by Sheriff Leaf?

22                   MS. BROOK: I don't believe the Court necessarily 23 can. To the extent the Court believes it has any authority
24 over Sheriff Leaf, we welcome it to take any actions.

25                   But what the Court does have authority over is

1 Ms. Lambert, her client, Mr. Byrne, and the previous 2 attorneys who can at least provide fulsome information about
3 what was shared and when and why.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

5 Ms. Lambert.

6 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Can I ask, is Mr. Driscoll in the 8 courtroom? And is Mr. Byrne in the courtroom, Ms. Lambert?

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: [Indiscernible.]

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 Ms. Lambert, you may respond. I'd like to 12 understand in addition to anything you'd like to say in 13 response -- I'm not entertaining full argument right now, 14 but anything you'd like to say in response. I'd like to 15 understand where these documents are currently located and 16 in whose possession as far as you're aware.

17 But why don't you first respond to the argument
18 that --

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Your Honor, my client, Mr. Byrne, did not bring 21 this lawsuit; Dominion did. And when Dominion sued
22 Mr. Byrne, they sued a national intelligence asset.

23 Mr. Byrne has an obligation, as do I as an officer
24 of the Court, to report criminal activity. In this 25 discovery, your Honor --

1 THE COURT: So you don't deny that you
2 disseminated documents marked "confidential" in this
3 litigation after filing -- after signing an undertaking --

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Your Honor --

5 THE COURT: -- correct?

6 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: -- I did turn the documents
7 over to law enforcement. And there is no law that would
8 prevent me from turning documents under a protective order
9 to law enforcement as I'm reviewing them. It's law
10 enforcement's job to determine if there's a crime that's 11 been committed, investigate it and pursue it. Just as if 12 Dominion had provided to me documents along with a dead
13 body, I'd be required to turn that in to the police as well
14 and not hide it and conceal it in a closet under a 15 protective order.

16 There's a different analysis with what is --

17 THE COURT: What's your best authority for that 18 proposition?

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I've done research, your 20 Honor. There is no law that I can find that would prevent 21 me from turning in evidence of a crime. And that is because 22 law enforcement needs to investigate that, and a civil 23 process should never interfere with it.

24 The Court can look at case law -- and I can
25 provide that when I do full argument -- that analyzes

1 contracts. For example, in contract, if you waive criminal
2 liability, that's not a valid term of a contract.

3 The criminal aspect is entirely separate.

4 So when Dominion sued --

5 THE COURT: Ms. Lambert, hold on. I'd just -- I'd 6 like to get a few things on the timing --

7 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Sure.

8 THE COURT: -- down.

9 So you entered your appearance in this case -- I
10 believe it was the 11th or the 12th.

11 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I'm not sure of the exact
12 date, your Honor. But when I have an opportunity to do full 13 argument before Judge Nichols, I think it would be 14 appropriate to decide first what is protected by 15 attorney-client privilege and what information that the 16 Court can obtain regarding Mr. Byrne's representation.

17 THE COURT: Okay. My understanding is that you
18 entered your appearance on the 12th. And you did sign an 19 undertaking pursuant to the protective order, did you not?

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I did, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And what date is the date of 22 the undertaking that you signed?

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I don't have that with me,
24 your Honor. But I think that's where the judge would need
25 to do an analysis as to -- at what point -- what information

1 would be available for the Court that's not protected by 2 attorney-client privilege.

3 I think that we need to have a determination there
4 as to whether anything regarding the retainer and the 5 representation for Mr. Byrne --

6 THE COURT: Yes. I'm not talking about the 7 retainer. What I'm trying to understand -- does anyone --
8 Ms. Brook, do you have the date of the undertaking that 9 Ms. Lambert signed?

10 MS. BROOK: I can find it. Yes. It's an exhibit
11 to our motion.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: And for the record, your 14 Honor, I did not provide that to counsel. That must have 15 been provided by Mr. Byrne's previous counsel. And I'm not 16 waiving attorney-client privilege with regards to 17 documentation provided by counsel.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You're claiming that the 19 undertaking that you signed, which is an exhibit to the 20 protective order in this case, in which you certified as an 21 officer of the Court that you would keep all documents
22 confidential and/or comply with the terms of the protective 23 order, you're claiming attorney-client privilege over that 24 document?

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No, your Honor.

1 I did sign a protective order. What I'm -- there
2 has been communication that I believe is inappropriate from
3 Mr. Byrne's previous counsel after they'd been terminated
4 with Dominion's counsel.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I don't -- I'm not privy to 6 those communications. I don't know which communications
7 you're referring to. And I don't want to wade into any 8 attorney-client-privileged communications if there are any 9 that you're referring to.

10 I'm trying to get a timeline here. I'd like to 11 know the date -- so there is no dispute that you signed an 12 undertaking. I'd like to know the date that you signed the 13 undertaking.

14 Ms. Brook seems to have it.

15 And, Ms. Brook, before you say on the record,
16 please give Ms. Lambert an opportunity to look at it to 17 confirm that that is her signature.

18 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: Sure. And I can expedite
19 this for the Court. I signed a protective order. And after 20 signing the protective order, I reviewed very thoroughly the 21 discovery turned over --

22 THE COURT: Ma'am, I just want to know the date.

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: Okay. Right.

24 THE COURT: Let's just take this step by step.

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: And then I turned it over

1 to law enforcement.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we're going to get to
3 that part in a second. Okay?

4 But I need to know the date of this undertaking.

5 MS. BROOK: That's correct. December 12th, your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And that is your signature?

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

9 THE COURT: All right. This is the copy that has 10 been sent to the Court; is that correct?

11 MS. BROOK: Correct, your Honor. It is Exhibit 2
12 to Dominion's brief. And it says December 12th, 2023.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So on that date, you were not 14 counsel of record for Mr. Byrne. Correct?

15 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Mr. Byrne had hired me and 16 I was in the process of taking over for the previous firm.

17 THE COURT: Okay. But given that you entered your 18 appearance in this case about three months later, you were 19 not counsel of record at that time.

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

21 THE COURT: So do I understand it correctly that 22 after that time that you signed the undertaking, you then
23 gave I don't know how many pages of documents, but a tranche
24 of documents that were clearly marked "confidential" in this 25 case, to a third party?

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: To law enforcement, your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. To whom specifically?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I've given it to sheriff's 5 departments and it's under review through Mr. Byrne by the 6 United States Attorney's Office.

7 THE COURT: I need names.

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Sheriff Dar Leaf.

9 THE COURT: And when did you give that information
10 over to Sheriff Dar Leaf?

11 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I'm not sure exactly of the 12 date. I'd have to review the records.

13 THE COURT: Month?

14 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. More recent than that.

15 THE COURT: No; I'm saying, do you know the month
16 that you gave it over?

17 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Oh. This month, your
18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: This month?

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Who else did you give the 22 information over to?

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I've given it to -- 24 Mr. Byrne has it. And he is working with the U.S.
25 Attorney's Office.

1 THE COURT: So which --

2 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: And I don't have the names.

3 THE COURT: Which district?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I'm not sure. That would
5 be a question for Mr. Byrne.

6 THE COURT: He's your client, ma'am. And you
7 are -- and you have the obligation to be apprised of what is 8 happening with --

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I --

10 THE COURT: -- this confidential -- let me finish,
11 please.

12 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And I'm just going to say this to 14 everyone: I know everyone's heated. I know there's a lot 15 going on. But you've got to let the Court finish so that we 16 have a good transcript. You'll thank me later.

17 So you don't know to whom Mr. Byrne has disclosed
18 this information other than --

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: To the government, your
20 Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, to the --

22 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: And I don't know -- I don't 23 have that information with me and I don't know that I'll be 24 able to provide it, given that it's an ongoing confidential
25 investigation.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Who else did you give this
2 information to other than Sheriff Dar Leaf?

3 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No one.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Did you attempt to give it to 5 any members of the press?

6 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

7 THE COURT: Have you attempted to give this
8 information to any other law enforcement officers?

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No, your Honor.

10 And -- but Mr. Leaf, Sheriff Leaf, is working with 11 other sheriffs doing an investigation, as he's entitled to 12 do. That's his job: to investigate crime. And he has -- 13 there's a misrepresentation of Mr. Leaf posting on social 14 media. It's not a mere post on social media. Your Honor, 15 he wrote a letter to Congress asking Congress to do a very 16 serious investigation in light of what was in his possession
17 and to immediately take testimony given the public interest
18 involved in what was in his file.

19 THE COURT: Ms. Lambert, you are aware that there 20 is a mechanism if you disagree that the information should 21 not be kept confidential. There is a mechanism for you to 22 challenge that information and to come to this Court and 23 seek de-designation of that information, are you not?

24 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Your Honor, I believe
25 that's for the civil lens on the information.

1 I don't believe that's appropriate with anything
2 criminal. If it were literally a dead body, I don't think
3 I'd bring the dead body to the Court and ask the Court what
4 to do --

5 THE COURT: That's such a hyperbole. Okay? We're
6 talking about documents that are clearly covered by a
7 protective order of this Court or at least were designated.
8 I'm not deciding today whether the documents were in fact
9 covered. Okay?

10 But you have cited no authority, you can cite no
11 authority to this Court, that you can unilaterally disclose
12 this information without seeking to at least come to this 13 Court and have those documents de-designated for the purpose
14 of disseminating them. And the analogy of the dead body, it
15 just -- it rings hollow to me, because there are exigencies
16 when you have a dead body.

17 Was there a particular exigency that required you
18 to go disclose this information right this instant --

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Well, your Honor --

20 THE COURT: -- as opposed to seeking emergency
21 review by this Court and challenging the documents and 22 seeking the Court's permission to disclose these documents
23 outside of the parties that are subject to the protective 24 order?

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Absolutely, your Honor.

1           The evidence reflects -- and I can't go through
2           all of it; it's over a million documents -- but it reflects
3           foreign nationals entering our election system in realtime
4           while votes are being counted, being directed and tasked by 5           U.S. Dominion employees. It reflects the honest services
6           fraud, where certain equipment and software was represented
7           to the EAC while they're communicating and lying and 8           providing a different product to --

9           THE COURT: When did you get the documents?
10          December?

11          MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

12          THE COURT: Well, you signed the undertaking in 13          December. When --

14          MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct. It took quite 15          some time, much after the holidays, when I received the 16          documents.

17          THE COURT: Okay. So sometime in January?

18          MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I would have to look, your 19          Honor. I'm not exactly sure. But I went through them.

20                 And it's very important that Congress and law
21                 enforcement immediately start investigating everything 22                 that's contained in this -- in these files, because there's 23                 ongoing elections that would absolutely be impacted
24                 throughout this country by what is in the file.

25          THE COURT: The elections that are forthcoming in

1 November? Is that what you're referring to?

2 MS. LAMBERT JUNTTILA: Well, there's primary
3 elections, your Honor. There's local elections being run.

4 THE COURT: So you received --

5 MS. LAMBERT JUNTTILA: It's a national public --

6 THE COURT: Ma'am, you received the documents
7 in -- sometime in January or sometime after the holidays.
8 It took you two months or several weeks to disclose them to 9 law enforcement.

10 You mean to tell me you couldn't come to this 11 Court and seek a challenge or make a challenge to the 12 confidential designation of these documents? One of the 13 arguments you make -- and I haven't had an opportunity,
14 since you just filed your response about an hour ago or 15 about an hour and a half ago -- that one of the arguments
16 you make is that they -- that the documents themselves or 17 the protective order is only meant to cover trade secrets.

18 And if you really had an issue with these 19 documents and did not think they were confidential, the 20 protective order gives you a full and fair opportunity to 21 challenge that and bring that before the Court and let the 22 Court decide.

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTTILA: With all due respect, your 24 Honor, I think that's asking the Court to function in a dual 25 role: one, preside over the civil matter; and, two, act as

1 law enforcement and evaluate whether or not in a narrow
2 scope whether or not the Court believes that it be a crime,
3 when there's already active investigations going on with law
4 enforcement that would have a full picture to evaluate the 5 evidence that's corroborating it.

6 THE COURT: No. No. What it does is if you have 7 authority, which you don't have right now or can't point the 8 Court to right now that the documents could be released to a
9 third party, then you could have cited that to the Court;
10 you could have sought emergency relief; you could have taken
11 the position as you do now that these documents don't 12 constitute trade secrets or other sensitive confidential --
13 or commercial information.

14 But you didn't do any of that. You had the 15 documents for several weeks and then you released them
16 without any notice. In fact, you didn't even notify any 17 other party to the protective order. It was your 18 predecessor counsel that did so.

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Well, that would result in 20 obstruction of justice, your Honor. And that's exactly what 21 happened.

22 The minute that the Dominion attorneys found out
23 that law enforcement was backing up and preserving the 24 files, they obstructed that investigation and notified the 25 vendor to lock me as counsel out. I'm currently locked out

1 of the vendor. I have no access to my client's discovery to 2 continue to defend him.

3 And I think that the reason there's no authority
4 to cite to the Court, it's essentially asking me to find
5 authority that water is wet. I don't believe it's ever
6 appropriate for a civil court to interfere or evaluate a
7 criminal investigation that is separate.

8 And I believe that's why that authority doesn't 9 exist.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I think the authority
11 doesn't exist for another reason. But I'm not going to 12 prejudge that right now.

13 I will allow you all to make your arguments and 14 consider whether it's me or whether it's Judge Nichols to 15 consider the motion for sanctions and motion to disqualify.
16 As I mentioned, that is a severe remedy. The law of this
17 circuit is clear. So that's something that the Court needs
18 to do taking its time and thinking very seriously about 19 that.

20 But what I would like to know now on the record is 21 where -- I'd like you to walk me through, ma'am, where the 22 documents currently are located -- all the places in your 23 possession that these documents are currently located,
24 because while the Court takes this issue under advisement
25 and holds a hearing or sets a hearing on the motion, we need

1 to ensure that the status quo is maintained. And it may 2 very well be after full hearing and argument that you're 3 right.

4 But until that time, these documents need to be,
5 to the extent they can be, we need to prevent any further
6 disclosure because they are marked "confidential" and 7 because you did not challenge their confidentiality
8 designation before the Court. We could have been in a much
9 different position if you had actually come to the Court and 10 challenged their designation. But be that you didn't do
11 that and didn't follow that procedure, I have to at least 12 try to stop any further dissemination by you or your client
13 while this issue is taken up and while we hear further 14 argument.

15 So first walk me through, Ms. Lambert, where and 16 on what devices you have these documents in your possession.

17 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I am currently locked out
18 of the vendor site, your Honor. So --

19 THE COURT: Do you have any documents printed out 20 anywhere?

21 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: The documents have been 22 provided to law enforcement, and they are now locked out of 23 the vendor site as well.

24 THE COURT: When you say they are locked out, law
25 enforcement?

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

2 THE COURT: When you say law enforcement, can you
3 be more specific? Do you mean Sheriff Leaf?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Did you print out any documents
6 at any time?

7 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I have printed out some
8 documents.

9 THE COURT: And where are they located?

10 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: They're in my home.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And about how many documents
12 did you print out? Or do you know which specific documents
13 you printed out?

14 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Some of the discovery. I
15 don't know which ones, your Honor. I viewed them and 16 they're in possession of Dar Leaf. So I -- I did not print
17 many documents. I have a small --

18 THE COURT: Can you give me a ballpark of how 19 many?

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Maybe 50.

21 THE COURT: 50.

22 And who has access to those documents in your 23 home?

24 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Just me.

25 THE COURT: Are they kept in a safe?

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. They're kept locked in 2 my office.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Does anyone have a key to that 4 office --

5 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

6 THE COURT: -- other than you?

7 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

8 THE COURT: And it's a home office?

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have a laptop?

11 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I do.

12 THE COURT: And do you have any of the documents
13 downloaded on any laptop or desktop anywhere?

14 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

15 THE COURT: Nowhere?

16 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No.

17 THE COURT: Not even one page?

18 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. No. I've had laptop
19 issues lately.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any documents
21 downloaded on your phone or any tablet or any electronic 22 device?

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I don't think they're 24 downloaded. I viewed the documents.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Through the repository?

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And that's the one that you
3 don't have access to right now?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

5 THE COURT: Do you have any notes of these 6 documents that you've kept of these documents reflecting
7 confidential information?

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I -- yes. I've taken
9 work-product attorney-client-privileged notes.

10 THE COURT: And where are those notes?

11 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: In my private
12 communications.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Where are they stored? I don't 14 want the contents. I don't want the contents of your work
15 product. I just --

16 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: On my device.

17 THE COURT: Which device?

18 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: My phone.

19 THE COURT: Okay. How many phones do you have,
20 ma'am?

21 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I have one phone.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And are there any -- and those 23 are just notes that you took after reviewing the documents
24 or --

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

1 THE COURT: -- while reviewing the documents?

2 Does anyone have access to those notes?

3 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: My legal team.

4 THE COURT: Okay. When you say your legal team,
5 who are you referring to? Your staff?

6 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Anyone working for me.
7 Yes.

8 THE COURT: And how many staff members do you
9 have?

10 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Well, I have one assistant 11 and...

12 THE COURT: What's the assistant's name?

13 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: And another attorney.

14 THE COURT: Okay. That's in your law practice?

15 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct. Yes.

16 THE COURT: And they have access to your notes?

17 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: The attorney I don't think
18 has access to the notes. No.

19 THE COURT: What's your assistant's name?

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Stephanie.

21 THE COURT: Last name?

22 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Scott.

23 THE COURT: And is that P-H-A-N-I-E?

24 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And so she has the ability to

1 get into -- excuse me -- your notes on your phone?

2 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. We've exchanged
3 information.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And the attorney in your 5 office's name?

6 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Russell.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Can you give me a last name?

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Newman.

9 THE COURT: Sorry?

10 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes. Newman.

11 THE COURT: Newman?

12 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Is that the traditional spelling?

14 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And you don't believe that 16 Mr. Newman has access to those notes?

17 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. I don't believe so.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Are there any other places that 19 either any of the confidential information, any other place
20 where the confidential information is located or notes about 21 the confidential information is located?

22 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Not that I can recall at 23 this time.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know whether Mr. Byrne
25 has printed out any documents?

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I don't know.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Have you spoken to him about 3 it?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I've spoken to him about
5 the discovery, yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know whether he has
7 given the information to any third party?

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I believe law enforcement.

9 THE COURT: Okay. The U.S. Attorney's --

10 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: And I have no further
11 information about that at this time.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Any other places
13 that you think that any of this confidential information is 14 located either between you or your counsel -- you or your 15 client of which you're aware?

16 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No. Not that I'm aware of 17 that I can recall at this time.

18 THE COURT: I'll ask you to just have a seat,
19 ma'am, while I'll ask Ms. Brook whether she has any 20 questions about where there might be any other additional 21 information.

22 As I mentioned, for now, the concern is while the 23 Court considers the substantive issue as to whether you were 24 entitled to disclose this information and have a full and 25 fair argument on this and the motion for sanctions and

1 disqualification, the Court is concerned about maintaining 2 the status quo.

3 So, Ms. Brook, is there any question that you
4 have?

5 MS. BROOK: Briefly, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Lambert.

7 MS. BROOK: Thank you, your Honor.

8 Three quick points. This is the first -- well,
9 first point. We were --

10 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Can you start with any 11 followup questions that you have to ensure that I've 12 captured the full universe of any documents in Ms. Lambert
13 or Mr. Byrne's possession, custody or control, so that we 14 can try to put a lock on those?

15 MS. BROOK: That's precisely my intent, your
16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MS. BROOK: So the first question I have is, in an 19 email to us from Mr. Byrne's exited attorneys, which is 20 Exhibit 7 to our motion, they say that Stefanie Lambert --
21 and I quote -- "publicly disclosed by her as part of a 22 filing she made in the criminal case styled People of the 23 State of Michigan versus Stefanie Lynn Lambert Junttila,
24 which is currently pending before the Sixth Circuit Court in 25 Oakland county, Michigan, as case number" -- and then it

1 provides the case number, closed quote.

2 So they said that in addition to providing the
3 documents to Sheriff Leaf, Ms. Lambert also herself filed
4 these documents publicly in an action in which she is the 5 Defendant.

6 So to the extent -- I would assume she has copies,
7 electronic and otherwise, in her possession of that filing,
8 where she attached some of these documents. So that's the 9 first location, your Honor, that I know of that I don't
10 think was provided for in the accounting that was just made
11 by Ms. Lambert.

12 The second question I have, your Honor, if you'd 13 like me to continue -- or I can pause there.

14 The second question I had, your Honor,
15 Ms. Lambert's remarks today was the first I ever heard if I
16 understood her correctly that they've actually provided a
17 log-in and credentials to Sheriff Dar Leaf. We had not 18 heard that before. If I heard correctly, she says that's 19 currently closed off.

20 But did anyone else from the sheriff's office get 21 a log-in and credentials? Who else has log-in and 22 credentials to either the old or the new document repository
23 so that we can make sure, as the Court said, the status quo
24 is protected? We need to know that that is all turned off.

25 I had the --

1 THE COURT: Who --

2 MS. BROOK: -- same questions as the Court --
3 sorry?

4 THE COURT: Who controls the document repository?

5 MS. BROOK: Not Dominion, your Honor. It is a
6 document repository paid for by Patrick Byrne, engaged by 7 Patrick Byrne, I would imagine, unless he has someone else
8 footing the bill.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. BROOK: So it was her own filing which we were 11 told she attached these documents to. It is a full 12 accounting of who had access to the document repository,
13 including whether the assistant and associate in her firm
14 that she mentioned had access. We would think again it
15 should all just be paused pending this Court's 16 determination.

17 That answers the Court's questions that were 18 directed to me.

19 And then I just had one other point I wanted to 20 make very briefly, if allowed.

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MS. BROOK: I appreciate the Court's focus on the 23 fact that these documents were marked "confidential." From 24 what I have seen, most if not all of the documents that 25 Ms. Lambert leaked were marked "confidential."

1           But I want to be clear that the governing
2           protective order in this case doesn't allow the sharing of 3           documents produced in discovery by any of the parties,
4           regardless of whether they were marked "confidential" or 5           not.

6           And the reason for that, your Honor, was plain:
7           We did not want these cases to be litigated in the press.
8           We wanted them to be litigated in the courtroom.

9           So I'll just briefly point the Court to Paragraph
10          1 of the protective order, which is Exhibit 6 to Dominion's
11          motion. And it says, plain as day -- and this was a
12          negotiated point between the parties: "Any discovery
13          material produced in the litigation will be used except by 14          the producing party solely for purposes of this litigation, 15          and no receiving party will provide discovery material to 16          any person or entity, including for any other litigation, or 17          make any discovery material public except as permitted by 18          this order and in this litigation."

19          So I just wanted to clarify that for the Court's 20          reference.

21          THE COURT: Well, do you know whether the 22          documents that were filed on the public record in the 23          Michigan case were all marked "confidential"?

24          MS. BROOK: I don't know whether they all were. I
25          know that some of them certainly were, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 MS. BROOK: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Well, Ms. -- actually, Ms. Brook, what 4 would -- other than returning or destroying the documents or 5 placing them -- placing them in escrow with a third party,
6 is there anything that Dominion is seeking for interim
7 relief to -- just to maintain the status quo while the Court
8 takes up this issue? Anything that Dominion is asking the 9 Court to do with respect to, say, attorney notes which, you
10 know, if they are work product, Dominion's not entitled to?

11 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, to answer your question
12 directly, in terms of maintaining the status quo, we think
13 it should be clear that neither Ms. Lambert nor anyone
14 working with her as well as her client, Mr. Byrne, or anyone
15 working with him should have access to any of the vendors
16 right now.

17 And to the extent they've given these documents to 18 experts or anyone, it should all be cut off, which is I
19 think what the Court is trying to get at, frozen, during the 20 pendency of this decision that the Court has before it.

21 The other request -- and I want to be clear, your
22 Honor, that we think, Dominion thinks, that that order
23 should apply with equal force to Ms. Lambert and her client,
24 Mr. Byrne.

25 The other requests that I delineated earlier and

1 that are included in our proposed order, they go more
2 towards understanding the harm versus maintaining the status
3 quo.

4 I think there's information that's not
5 attorney-client privileged, that's not work product, in the 6 possession of, for example, the document vendors, in the 7 possession of Mr. Byrne's now outgoing counsel and in the 8 possession of Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne that would be 9 helpful to all in understanding the scope of the breach 10 here.

11 And those are the other requests delineated in our 12 proposed order.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 Ms. Lambert, who has control of this document
15 repository?

16 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Your Honor, if I could 17 respond to some of the things that counsel said.

18 THE COURT: Who has control of the document -- you 19 can, but just --

20 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Right.

21 THE COURT: -- can you answer my question?

22 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: No one has access to the 23 documents at this time, your Honor.

24 And counsel misrepresented that I filed the 25 documents in my own case. There was an affidavit from the

1 sheriff that he received a subpoena to provide the documents
2 in a case, and he responded with an affidavit and
3 attachments to the affidavit. That was not my filing; that 4 was an affidavit from the sheriff.

5 So that was --

6 THE COURT: You gave the documents to the sheriff,
7 did you not?

8 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: And he had an open
9 investigation, and he responded with an affidavit saying he 10 was going to seek to quash the subpoena in a large extent.

11 So, your Honor, the sheriff's office, the 12 appropriate chain of custody, the best chain of custody, 13 would be to obtain the documents from my log-in.

14 I was giving an -- and I find it very ironic that 15 Dominion sued the national intelligence asset and is 16 complaining about a breach when he's turned in evidence of 17 national security breaches done by Dominion.

18 Dominion had Serbian foreign nationals in our 19 elections system that they admit in this documentation, your 20 Honor, they couldn't do background checks on. These could 21 be Serbian foreign military --

22 THE COURT: We're getting --

23 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: -- and this is outrageous.

24 THE COURT: We're getting into the underlying --

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILLA: Sure.

1 THE COURT: -- underlying arguments, which I
2 will -- Ms. Lambert, as I mentioned, I haven't had a chance
3 to read the filing, which I do appreciate you making and --

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Sure.

5 THE COURT: -- and getting in today. But because
6 it came in so late, I haven't had the opportunity to review
7 everything except -- that's why I asked for your principal 8 authority today --

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Sure.

10 THE COURT: -- as to what you were relying on,
11 which I don't have any case that you're relying on that you
12 say allowed you to do this. So I want to give you the 13 opportunity to make your full argument at a later time, 14 where you can present that.

15 But as far as the documents go, they're attached
16 to an affidavit by the sheriff in your case in Michigan. Is 17 there a way that you can confer with -- or your lawyers --
18 who are you represented by in that case?

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Daniel J. Hartman.

20 THE COURT: Sorry. Could you give me the --

21 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Daniel J. Hartman.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So those documents are on the 23 public record in that case; is that correct? I know you say
24 you didn't file them, but they were posted by the sheriff?

25 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I attached his affidavit to

1 a filing. Yes, I did. And it was an affidavit -- he had
2 received a subpoena that he was -- that he needed to comply
3 with. And he was stating in the affidavit to the Court that
4 he was going to file a motion to quash and that he had a
5 very serious investigation underway.

6 THE COURT: Did he -- all right. So everyone
7 needs -- I need everyone to speak to me very directly,
8 because you just led me to believe that you did not make the 9 filing, that it was the sheriff who made the filing.

10 So it was a filing that you made or that your 11 lawyers made on your behalf that attached the sheriff's 12 affidavit? And then were the documents attached to his 13 affidavit?

14 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: They were exhibits to his 15 affidavit.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Right. It's his affidavit,
18 though, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So they were filed by your 20 counsel?

21 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So those documents are 23 currently in the public domain?

24 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Correct.

25 THE COURT: Okay. At a minimum, while this

1 dispute is underway, I'm going to order you to request that
2 those documents be filed under seal or that those documents
3 be made under seal for the pendency of this dispute. Okay?

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Yes, Judge.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And I need Mr. Byrne to appear
6 at the next hearing in this case, because I need to 7 understand the full scope of what he -- what, if any,
8 dissemination he has made of confidential information.
9 Again, this is an interim order to maintain the status quo
10 until I can hear your arguments, hear his arguments and hear
11 Dominion's arguments.

12 With respect to the documents that are -- I just 13 want to take these one at a time.

14 So with respect to the documents that are the 50
15 or so documents that are printed out in your office, I will 16 order you to -- they can stay in Ms. Lambert's office if you
17 can verify that no one else will have access to them and 18 that you will not be further disseminating --

19 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I keep my office locked,
20 your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm taking your
22 representation as an officer of the Court that you are the 23 only person that has a key to that office and that no other 24 person is going to have access to that.

25 Is that -- is that sufficient for Dominion for

1 these 50 printed-out documents?

2 MS. BROOK: Yes, your Honor. That's fine.

3 THE COURT: Okay. With respect to the notes on 4 your phone, ma'am, I'm going to ask that you direct 5 Ms. Scott to destroy any communications that she had with 6 you that reflect your impressions or your notes based on 7 those documents.

8 And what would Dominion's request be with respect
9 to that?

10 My inclination would be, ma'am, that you put that 11 in a segregated file and that you have to -- that you cannot 12 discuss, share, disseminate those notes or refer to them at 13 all except with perhaps your counsel in your other case.

14 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, respectfully, if I may, I
15 would -- Dominion would prefer that they not be destroyed
16 but instead segregated. I don't want to jump ahead, but I
17 do believe there might be a crime fraud issue here. And to 18 the extent there are communications where individuals were 19 talking about how to violate a court order or violate the 20 law, then those documents should frankly be preserved, as 21 they may become evidence in a future proceeding.

22 But we would request an oral order that Ms. Scott,
23 Ms. Lambert and anyone else segregate them in a file and not 24 access them again and of course not share them or 25 disseminate them during the pendency of the Court's review.

2 MS. BROOK: Can --

3 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Well, your Honor, I'll do
4 whatever the Court asks me to do. But I take exception with 5 that, given that Dominion has directed a vendor to obstruct
6 an investigation. And I believe that Dominion has 7 represented fraud to the Court with its defamation suit.

8 But I'll follow the Court's order.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 Whatever arguments writ large either party has 11 about obstruction or, you know, whether Dominion has 12 instituted a fraud on the Court in the defamation case will 13 play out in the course of this case. I can guarantee you 14 that both I and Judge Nichols will allow those arguments to 15 be played out and we'll consider all of those arguments
16 seriously.

17 I'm dealing with the micro-issue of trying to 18 ensure that this information that's in your possession,
19 custody or control or that's in your client's possession,
20 custody or control are not further disseminated pending the 21 resolution so that I can consider your argument thoroughly 22 and give time and attention to your argument, ma'am, because 23 I do take it seriously.

24 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Thank you, Judge.

25 THE COURT: So just so that everyone's clear on

1 the record, the documents that you have with Ms. Scott, any
2 communications that you have with your assistant, Ms. Scott,
3 I'd like you to direct her to put that in a -- if she can,
4 in a locked or password-protected file on her computer or on 5 her phone, wherever they are located, wherever she was 6 communicating with you. If they're both on a tablet -- or 7 if they're on a tablet, a phone, a computer, they need to be 8 locked down in all of those places. And the same with your 9 side of the document -- or your side of the communications
10 that you may have had with Ms. Scott.

11 I also would like you to verify that Mr. Newman
12 does not have and never has had access to any of these 13 documents or to any of your -- and was not subject to any 14 communications or notes about these documents.

15 With respect to the documents in Michigan, I would 16 like you to request that your counsel in the Michigan case
17 speak with the prosecutor and explain the basis -- and I
18 will give you a copy of an order -- explain the basis for 19 the request of sealing of that filing pending further 20 resolution of this dispute and that you make the effort to 21 seal those documents pending further resolution of this 22 dispute, as they are currently subject to the protective 23 order, because, as I said before, you did not seek to 24 challenge them and have them de-designated, which you could 25 have easily come to this Court and done. But you did not do

1 that.

2 Okay. Now, with respect to the document
3 repository, you don't have access -- you don't have --

4 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I'm currently locked out,
5 your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. But do you know who controls
7 that? Dominion's saying that your client controls that 8 repository.

9 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I believe that it's 10 Relativity --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: -- is the vendor.

13 THE COURT: Who is Relativity acting at the 14 direction of in this -- for those documents?

15 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: Well, the previous counsel
16 was moving the documents over to a different vendor. So
17 I'll have to take a look at the contract and see who 18 currently has the documents with the vendor. But I'm locked
19 out of both, the vendor that it was initially with, and then
20 I never had access to the new vendor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I need to get some clarity from 22 the parties. So I would ask you all to file within -- it's 23 4:00 -- by 9:00 tomorrow morning some detail, because no one
24 seems to know who's controlling this Relativity database.

25 MS. BROOK: I believe my colleague Mr. Ross may

1 have information relevant to that, if the Court would like
2 to hear it.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 Mr. Ross?

5 Thank you, Ms. Lambert.

6 MR. ROSS: Thank you, your Honor. Jonathan Ross.

7 I'm the one who wrote the letters to the vendor,
8 so I have some insight on this.

9 So my understanding is that they were -- one
10 vendor was in the process of migrating the discovery in this 11 case that had been produced to another vendor at the 12 direction of Ms. Lambert's client.

13 I sent the letters Friday after having had 14 conversations with prior counsel, who said that they
15 couldn't do anything, and said, Please do not continue
16 disseminating or allowing any dissemination of this
17 information until we have a hearing on Monday and the Court
18 can decide what the Court wants to do.

19 The vendor who originally had the information, who 20 was in the process of migrating it, their chief operating 21 officer called me on Friday and said: We have stopped the 22 process. We are not giving anybody access, and we'll wait
23 until the Court tells us what we should or should not do.

24 That's the status. The information is no longer
25 available to anybody. It is no longer being migrated to the

1 new vendor. And they are awaiting this Court's ruling as to 2 what, if anything, they should do.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So if there is, say,
4 theoretically -- so do all of you have one repository or --

5 MR. ROSS: No.

6 THE COURT: -- each side has their own Relativity
7 database?

8 MR. ROSS: Each party has their own vendor who 9 then when we -- for example, when we produced to the D.C.
10 Defendants, all of this group, they all get the production.
11 They can then download it with whatever vendor they're using 12 and then set it up in whichever type of database they choose
13 to do.

14 THE COURT: Okay. But you only have an allegation
15 against Mr. Byrne and Ms. Lambert. Correct?

16 MR. ROSS: Absolutely.

17 THE COURT: So that database -- are you saying
18 that that database is -- no one has access to?

19 MR. ROSS: My understanding is that their original
20 database vendor was migrating their information, unrelated
21 to this issue today, to a new one.

22 I sent letters to both on Friday saying, Please
23 stop until the Court can address this issue.

24 My understanding from my conversation with the COO
25 of the initial database vendor, who was in the process of

1 doing the migrating, was that they have stopped, that nobody
2 has access to the information and that they will await 3 further instruction from us or the Court as to what they 4 should or should not do.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So would that -- so just 6 playing that out, if there is, say, some third party who has 7 received a log-in and password for that database and that 8 that third party has received a log-in, say, from 9 Mr. Byrne -- I'm not saying that's what happened; I'm just 10 hypothetically speaking, or Ms. Lambert -- that person
11 cannot get into that database right now?

12 MR. ROSS: From my conversation -- and I did not 13 have any understanding that they -- Ms. Lambert had actually 14 given out passwords and access to other third parties. But 15 from my understanding from my conversation with the COO,
16 that he has stopped anyone from having access to these 17 documents pending this hearing today.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.

19 MR. ROSS: Thank you, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 All right. Ms. Lambert, I would -- I assume you
22 have an objection to that database being under lock and key 23 for now. But I am going to order that no one have access to 24 those documents until we can sort this issue out.

25 Do you have any --

1 MS. LAMBERT JUNTILA: I do, your Honor. I do
2 have an objection [indiscernible].

3 THE COURT: I assumed you did. But that is the 4 only way that the Court can understand -- or can at least
5 stop further dissemination until the Court considers next
6 steps. Okay.

7 What I would like -- now that I have an
8 understanding of that, what I would like is for the parties
9 to send me a proposed order.

10 I'm not going to at this time request -- grant
11 Dominion's request to get information about the details of 12 any fee arrangement or any fee agreement between Ms. Lambert
13 and her client. That is not at this time, I think, what I'm 14 focused on. I'm focused on trying to prevent -- trying to 15 prevent any further dissemination while we figure this out.

16 And the -- Ms. Byrne [sic], you're going to have 17 to direct your client to comply with this order as well.
18 And I will seek a verification from lawyer and client that 19 these steps were taken pending the resolution of this -- of 20 this dispute, given that there is -- that you all -- that 21 you've conceded that that information has been disseminated,
22 although you do have an argument as to why. I will deal
23 with the "why" later. But for now, I need to maintain the 24 status quo.

25 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, may Dominion make one more

1 suggestion for that proposed order?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 MS. BROOK: We would also seek an instruction that
4 Ms. Lambert, Mr. Byrne and anyone else under the Court's 5 authority preserve all documents relating to this issue and 6 this dispute, including Mr. Byrne's prior counsel, who the 7 Court retains jurisdiction over under the protective order.

8 THE COURT: Yes. Again, please -- please draft a
9 proposed order. I do want Mr. Driscoll and his firm covered
10 by this if they have any documents.

11 Of course, I assume that Mr. Driscoll had -- he 12 was entitled to review these documents. So the fact that 13 prior counsel has them in their possession, I'm sure you
14 have a mechanism if you withdraw as counsel as to any return
15 of confidential information or destruction. But for now, I 16 think any documents related to this dispute should be 17 preserved.

18 But you're not making the argument that 19 Mr. Driscoll was in possession of any documents improperly,
20 are you?

21 MS. BROOK: No, your Honor.

22 And for the record, I would like to thank 23 Mr. Driscoll for his prompt notification of the issue to 24 Dominion.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 I'd ask you to please draft that order to share
2 with Ms. Lambert and submit it to the Court as soon as
3 possible, no later than -- I will look at it tonight if I
4 get it by tonight. But certainly no later than 9:00
5 tomorrow morning.

6 Okay. I reviewed -- as for some of the other
7 issues on the agenda for today, here's what I'm going to do
8 in terms of how I'm going to handle this:

9 With respect to the deposition protocol -- I
10 appreciate you all sending in your Round 1 and Round 2
11 disputes.

12 With respect to the deposition protocol, all I
13 would like to just know very briefly is: What is the 14 remaining dispute about remote depositions? Because if I
15 can resolve that now, I will. I understand that each party
16 may have a different position. But I would just -- very 17 briefly. Otherwise, I will do it on the papers. If it
18 turns into full-blown argument, you'd better believe I'm 19 going to stop it. So -- Mr. Babcock knows that for sure.

20 So can someone just tell me what the dispute is 21 about remote depositions? Ms. Brook.

22 MS. BROOK: Yes, your Honor.

23 And I'm sorry. Before we move off the protective 24 order issue, the Court had mentioned that it was also going 25 to address a briefing schedule or anything like that. Is

1       there something the Court would like us to include in the 2       draft proposed order?

3               THE COURT:   The draft proposed order should 4       address all the items we've discussed now about dealing with 5       kind of just maintaining the status quo on the documents;
6       and it should cover Mr. Byrne, Ms. Lambert and include the 7       components I've stated on the record.

8               With respect to briefing, we have -- we have a
9       response, which I do appreciate Ms. Lambert; I'm sure that 10      was -- took a great effort on your part to get that in.  So
11      I do appreciate the response to the emergency motion.

12              To the extent that Dominion wishes to file a
13      reply, I would order Dominion to do so by Friday at 5:00
14      p.m.

15              And then you will get a further order from -- I
16      mean, at that point, the exigency in terms of the 17      dissemination of documents to the extent it can be cabined
18      has been -- will hopefully be done.  And we can have a -- 19      we'll set a briefing schedule -- I mean, oral argument, if 20      necessary.

21              And it will -- at this time, I'm trying to deal
22      with the emergency issue.  I will -- it will be either
23      before Judge Nichols or before me.  He has not had the 24      opportunity yet to decide whether this is a matter that will 25      be referred to me.

1 MS. BROOK: Thank you, your Honor.

2 Switching hats, I will say it as briefly and
3 hopefully, frankly, as neutrally as possible.

4 In order to schedule all the depositions that need
5 to happen in this case, Dominion proposes that they be 6 remote unless the Defendants ask and we oblige for them to 7 be in person. And we've told them we're happy to do that 8 for the ones that they want within reason.

9 They have the opposite request. They want the 10 default to be in person, and they've said they'd oblige if 11 we want them to be remote.

12 THE COURT: Why would there -- why would these 13 depositions need to be remote?

14 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, Dominion's opinion is 15 these depositions need to be remote because, if not, 16 scheduling is going to preclude them getting done on the 17 order set by the Court.

18 All Dominion wants is to move this case towards 19 trial as quickly as possible and bothering the Court as 20 little as possible.

21 As of today's date, standing before you right now,
22 Defendants and Dominion have already collectively flagged 86
23 different depositions that they want to happen. Most of 24 them, the majority, are requests from Defendants for 25 Dominion witnesses.

1           As you can see just practically, there are a lot
2 of attorneys involved in these cases. There are a lot of 3 attorneys located in a lot of different places involved in 4 these cases. And if every time we schedule one of these 5 depositions we're building in travel time and coordinating
6 around so many different schedules that even with everyone
7 operating in the utmost of best faith, I think it's fairly
8 easy to predict that we're going to run into scheduling
9 issues.

10           So remote deposition technology makes it perfectly
11 able to do these depositions remotely. We took all but I
12 think three of the depositions in the Dominion-Fox case
13 remotely without any issues.

14           But like we said, if there are certain ones where 15 they really want to sit down opposite these folks and talk
16 to them, we'll work with them on that. But we think that 17 because of that -- and frankly, your Honor, because of some 18 of the trauma that the Dominion witnesses have suffered,
19 there are some of them, too, that walking into a conference
20 room with 30 attorneys sitting around it who they're 21 naturally going to view as being hostile to them is a big 22 ask.

23           THE COURT: Well, I can understand that. But this 24 is your case. You've brought this case. And remote
25 depositions are not the norm. So if you all -- if there are

1 parties that -- well, first of all, the only parties as far
2 as I'm concerned that should be involved in dealing with 3 scheduling is the party that noticed the deposition and the 4 party that -- whose witness it is. Okay?

5 Any of the other parties, if they can make it,
6 great. If not, as far as I'm concerned, I don't think other
7 parties all get a say in every single deposition that's 8 scheduled.

9 So if it's a Dominion -- let's say it's a Dominion
10 witness and Mr. Lindell notices that deposition. The only 11 two attorneys that should be conferring on that and when it
12 takes place and where are Mr. Lindell's counsel and 13 Dominion.

14 So is -- are you saying that everyone else is 15 trying to get a say in on this?

16 MS. BROOK: Yes, as is their right, your Honor, 17 under the deposition protocol that we've agreed to.

18 So we've agreed, to avoid putting disputes in 19 front of your Honor, that they each get a certain number of 20 hours for these witnesses. So even though OAN might have 21 requested a specific witness, there's a protocol that 22 everyone's agreed to, we worked out, where each of them can 23 take a certain number of hours and our person will sit for 24 that whole time so that we can get it done within one swoop
25 right there and then.

1           So while you're absolutely right that it means
2 just one Defendant who's the one making the specific 3 request, they do all have a right to participate. And as 4 we've begun to schedule depositions already, this is what's 5 coming up. Someone can make it that day; someone can't,
6 et cetera, et cetera.

7           And so again, your Honor, as evidenced in our
8 briefing, our main reason for this is simply speed. There
9 are a lot of depositions. There are going to be even more
10 as we get into third parties and all of that. And there's 11 no reason why they can't just default happen remote so that 12 we're not frankly coordinating this many different schedules
13 eight times a week.

14           And again, if there are certain people that they
15 really want in person, we frankly invited them. We said:
16 Hey, you've already noticed 13 depositions for April -- or 17 requested, I should say -- 13 depositions for April. Which 18 of those 13 would you really like in person? Let us know.

19           And we'll agree right here right now that those 20 subset can be in person.

21           And their response to that was: We want all 13 in 22 person.

23           So we're just trying to go fast, not bother the 24 Court. And we think that having the default be remote is 25 the way to do that, whereas if the default is in person,

1 we're going to be back before your Honor requesting
2 extensions, which we don't want to do, Dominion does not
3 want to do.

4 And perhaps, your Honor, the best evidence of this
5 is we had a meet-and-confer on Friday. Dominion reached out
6 to Defendants and said, Hey, we're all gearing up for this 7 hearing. Is there anything else we can knock out and let 8 the Court know we have figured it out like adults and don't 9 need to bother her with?

10 And we talked about this.

11 And one of the counsel for Defendants themselves
12 said: Well, if the Court grants Defendants' request for 13 in-person depositions, then we'll need more time in the 14 schedule in order to schedule all those depositions.

15 And so it's exactly our point, which is just that 16 if they are in person, it's going to slow things down,
17 whereas if they are remote, it will keep things moving. And 18 we've made every assurance, and I say it here again on the 19 record, that if there are specific ones they want in person,
20 we're happy to oblige.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 Is there one person that can speak on behalf of 23 the Defendants, if that's possible --

24 MR. CASARINO: I'll try to do that --

25 THE COURT: -- on this issue.

1 MR. CASARINO: Marc Casarino for the Powell
2 Defendants, your Honor.

3 So --

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry, sir. Which Defendants?

5 MR. CASARINO: For Sidney Powell and Sidney
6 Powell, P.C.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. CASARINO: Your Honor, in terms of the concern 9 we just heard about, scheduling nightmares, that's an 10 incredible red herring, because the protocol already 11 addresses that. It addresses that dates are exchanged. If 12 there can't be agreement on the dates, then the date of 13 the -- counsel for the witness and the person requesting the 14 deposition pick the date and everyone else has to show up or 15 be foreclosed.

16 So everything we just heard is actually not a
17 concern. I don't know where they got that from, because 18 that's not actually what we agreed on in the protocol.
19 We've already agreed on how to address that in the protocol,
20 your Honor.

21 And your Honor is absolutely correct that
22 in-person is the standard. We want to depose these people
23 in person. They chose to bring these cases, six separate
24 cases, against a bunch of Defendants in a very public way.
25 We want to depose these witnesses in person. And that's the

1 default. And it's our right.

2 And if they have good cause for specific witnesses
3 as to why they should be remote, we'll hear them and we'll
4 meet and confer. And where -- on those few that we can't 5 agree, if there is going to be those few that we can't 6 agree, we'll come to the Court and get decisions.

7 THE COURT: Oh, if you come to the Court, I
8 guarantee it will not go well for anybody.

9 MR. CASARINO: I --

10 THE COURT: If you're going to --

11 MR. CASARINO: I --

12 THE COURT: -- come to me about who gets taken
13 over Zoom versus who gets to be taken in person, it's not 14 going to be a good day for anybody.

15 MR. CASARINO: I've taken clear note of that, your
16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: I spent the first several years of my 18 career traveling to all manner of random places to take 19 depositions. So I mean, you've just got to work this out.

20 MR. CASARINO: And on the defense side, we're 21 perfectly happy to do that, your Honor. We're trying to do
22 them in person. If they want to attend by remote or other
23 people want to attend by remote, that's on them. That's 24 fine. But my client wants me to take these depositions in 25 person.

1 THE COURT: Well, I mean, if you have a one-hour
2 deposition, do you really need that to be taken in person?
3 You can't -- you can't confer and try to --

4 MR. CASARINO: Those --

5 THE COURT: -- see if you can get that done over
6 Zoom?

7 MR. CASARINO: Those are the one-off situations
8 where we'd meet and confer. But the default -- they want
9 the default to be flipped on its head, the default to be 10 remote, unless the Defendants come to the Court for good 11 cause to --

12 THE COURT: No. The default is in person.

13 MR. CASARINO: Thank you, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: So that said, however, you all have 15 the obligation under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 1.

16 If anyone can tell what that rule says, you get 17 brownie points, is probably the -- does someone know?
18 Anyone?

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: [Indiscernible.]

20 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay. Someone must have 21 read a previous transcript.

22 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We did, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Because usually not that many 24 people can say it.

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: All three.

1 THE COURT: So you all have the obligation to do
2 that, as do I. And I take the concern seriously. I do.
3 But the rules do allow in-person questioning. And being a
4 former trial lawyer myself, there is a benefit to 5 questioning someone in person.

6 However, if this is a minor witness, if there's a
7 real reason that this person should not be taken in person,
8 I expect the Defendants aren't doing this just for the sport
9 of it. Okay?

10 If there is a particular trauma, you guys can talk
11 amongst yourselves that maybe doing it by Zoom is not really 12 going to yield any real benefit to Defendants and would 13 be -- would yield a benefit to that particular witness, you
14 know. You all need -- you all have the obligation to and 15 need to talk about this in person.

16 And I expect that no one is going to be bringing a 17 dispute such as whether a witness needs to be taken in 18 person or over Zoom. And if it's a party, I really don't 19 want to hear that dispute. Okay? If it's a party, a 20 Defendant, a Plaintiff, that person gets to have their 21 deposition taken however the noticing party requests it.
22 Okay? Unless there's a compelling reason.

23 All right. So that issue is resolved --

24 MR. CASARINO: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: -- but with the asterisk that I'm

1 expecting counsel to be working cooperatively on those
2 issues and not just doing this, you know, gratuitously.
3 Okay?

4 MR. CASARINO: Understood, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: And I'm not saying anyone is. I'm 6 just saying that --

7 MR. CASARINO: Understood.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So then can I get
9 the parties to send me a Word version of the deposition
10 protocol with that change made? And if you all can send 11 that jointly to chambers, I will review it and enter that 12 deposition protocol order.

13 With respect to the discovery protocol, there are 14 a number of issues that I will take up. It may be that I --
15 excuse me -- that I deal with these on the papers. If I
16 need any argument, I will let you all know.

17 And then my understanding is that there are a
18 number of disputes that are OAN-specific disputes. And so
19 if there are still some live discovery disputes, I will set
20 those down for a hearing.

21 And some of you all have appeared before me, so
22 you know how this works. I don't allow full briefing if I
23 can resolve the dispute short of full briefing. So I do
24 have a template that I have created that I wish the parties
25 to fill out jointly that's very -- should be hopefully not a

1 heavy lift, but essentially the request at issue, what the
2 objection to the request is, and then each party gets the 3 opportunity to say very briefly what their respective 4 argument is.

5 I come from the school of thought that if you
6 can't tell me in three pages why you need this discovery,
7 then you're going to have a hard time convincing me to give
8 you more space unless it's a particularly complicated issue.
9 And then I will, you know, consider giving you more space.

10 So I will send that -- I will have my chambers
11 send that template to you all so you all know how I like to 12 have these briefed up. And that document gets submitted as 13 a joint submission so that there's not back-and-forth 14 briefing, which, you know, takes a lot of attorney time when 15 I could just get to the heart of the matter by looking at 16 that document and having a brief hearing.

17 So I will set a further hearing on that issue as 18 well.

19 Are there any issues that have been mooted that 20 weren't -- that were in the March 13th joint report? And 21 I'll let anyone come up if they need to to address this.

22 MS. BROOK: I think, your Honor -- so first of 23 all, we did read the previous orders and we were cognizant
24 that if any major issue was mooted we would alert the Court
25 so the Court did not waste its time.

1 I think one minor issue that was mooted was the
2 privilege log provision in the disputed discovery protocol.

3 MR. CASARINO: That's correct.

4 MS. BROOK: It turns out we were seeing eye to eye
5 and just talking past each other. So maybe if I can propose
6 it, we will just send in Word doc or frankly in an email the 7 exact language that the parties have agreed to as to that 8 dueling provision.

9 THE COURT: Do you know which number -- this is in 10 the discovery protocol?

11 MS. BROOK: Yeah. It's No. 9, I believe.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Very well.

13 MS. BROOK: And then there was further conferences
14 before the discovery protocol.

15 Was there anything else?

16 MR. CASARINO: Your Honor, I do believe also at 17 least for the Powell Defendants on the custodians we agreed
18 on who the custodian would be: Ms. Powell.

20 MR. CASARINO: A surprise.

21 THE COURT: There's the one custodian --

22 MR. CASARINO: A spoiler alert for your Honor.

24 MR. CASARINO: Ms. Powell.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. CASARINO: So that one is off the list for 2 Ms. Powell, anyway.

3 MS. BROOK: And I think unfortunately that was all
4 that the parties were able to further resolve by virtue of 5 the Zoom conference that we had on Friday.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 And the request for a discovery deadline, it may 8 have -- that has not yet been referred to me. It may very 9 well be that Judge Nichols does refer it to me. But at this 10 time, I will confer with him and decide how that's going to 11 proceed forward.

12 And then I think the only -- I mean, unless I'm 13 mistaken, the only party with specific discovery disputes is 14 OAN. Is that correct? Mr. Neerman or Mr. Ross?

15 MR. ROSS: We submitted a joint email. Actually,
16 it was to Judge Nichols -- excuse me -- the day he then 17 referred everything to you. And then we resubmitted it to 18 you.

19 THE COURT: Probably --

20 MR. ROSS: Four of those --

21 THE COURT: That's probably why he referred it --

22 MR. ROSS: It may have been the final match stick.
23 But four out of the five are OAN concerns about things that 24 we are objecting to.

25 The last one is our concern about something

1 they're objecting to, which will be familiar to you, because 2 it has to do with financial information. That same issue is
3 in front of you in the Smartmatic case. They've -- just so
4 you know, they've also agreed and the parties have agreed
5 based on your order in the Smartmatic case that anything
6 that is produced in the Smartmatic case by OAN is being 7 produced to us in this case and vice versa.

8 So your -- I think that motion is still pending in 9 front of you in the Smartmatic case. And your resolution of 10 that may resolve it for us as well.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. ROSS: Because they're very similar. That's 13 my only point.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. ROSS: But at some point, when we do submit --

16 THE COURT: That's the financial document issue?

17 MR. ROSS: Correct.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. ROSS: At some point, when we do submit it,
20 we'll submit our views on it as well. But it may be moot by 21 the time -- if you've already ordered that information,
22 because then we're going to get it as well.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. I see. Well, that 24 is a somewhat orderly way to deal with it.

25 But let me let Mr. Neerman or --

1 MR. ROSS: Of course.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 If OAN wishes to respond.

4 MR. NEERMAN: Hi, Judge.

5 THE COURT: You finally get to say something.

6 MR. NEERMAN: I know.

7 THE COURT: Do you disagree with that?

8 MR. NEERMAN: Well, as much as I'd like to, I
9 think Mr. Ross is correct. I know that we've been meeting
10 and conferring on various issues, and I think there's a 11 further meet-and-confer set for this Thursday to discuss
12 OAN's issues.

13 And then with respect to the Smartmatic case that 14 Mr. Ross referenced, OAN and Smartmatic are continuing to 15 confer on that issue. So it's still before your Honor, but 16 I don't think it's ripe yet because we're still conferring.

17 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Well, so then the issues
18 that are there in the joint status report at the very end,
19 the No. 5, OAN-specific disputes, those are issues you're 20 still going to confer on on Thursday?

21 MR. NEERMAN: That is correct, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Then can you all let me know, then, by 23 Monday? So I won't actually take these under advisement yet
24 or order further briefing yet until you all tell me which 25 were still live issues.

1 MR. NEERMAN: I think that's right, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. NEERMAN: And I don't think -- I don't think
4 we anticipated you being able to get to those today anyway
5 because of the various issues you were dealing with.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. NEERMAN: And so we're continuing to confer on 8 those issues.

9 MR. ROSS: But we're happy to let you know the 10 results. I think at best we may narrow them down a little 11 bit. I think there may still be some information for you to 12 take --

13 THE COURT: Well, some of you know how to deal
14 with discovery and how I interpret the rules. So I hope
15 that you all are able to resolve them.

16 And so I will not order the submission of those --
17 of that template document until I hear from you. So if you
18 could let me know by Monday at 5:00 p.m. and just file a 19 supplemental joint status report as to these OAN-specific 20 disputes and let the Court know which ones are still live
21 disputes.

22 MR. ROSS: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 MR. NEERMAN: Thank you, Judge.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Just a moment.

1 Mr. Babcock I knew --

2 MR. BABCOCK: [Indiscernible.]

3 THE COURT: Well, of course. I told you I didn't 4 think it was --

5 MR. BABCOCK: I know you told me.

6 Just in fairness to Smartmatic, that's not here,
7 we have been talking about the financial documents, but it's 8 been in fits and starts with me on our side and different
9 lawyers on their side.

10 I'm going to resolve myself next week to bite into 11 that and see if we can't get it done. And I think we can.
12 But...

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. BABCOCK: But I think if they were here they 15 would say, Oh, no. He hasn't called us back.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. BABCOCK: Which is fair.

18 THE COURT: Well, let's -- we won't wade too much
19 into that since they're not here.

20 MR. BABCOCK: Okay.

21 THE COURT: But I appreciate that.

22 MR. BABCOCK: Thank you, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Okay. Just a moment.

25 (Pause in the audio recording.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything further,
2 then, from Dominion?

3 MS. BROOK: Your Honor, if it's all right with the 4 Court, can I just tick through the things that the Court is 5 expecting from us so that we --

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MS. BROOK: -- are sure we're all on the same page
8 before we leave here today?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MS. BROOK: So the first one I have is that the 11 parties are to draft a joint -- we're to draft a proposed 12 order regarding the issue of Ms. Lambert and Mr. Byrne. We 13 are to get that to the Court as soon as practicable, but in 14 no event later than 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MS. BROOK: The second one I have is that we are 17 to get the Court a Word version of the depo protocol with 18 the default set as the Court has ordered today.

19 The third one -- and we'll do that via email, I
20 presume.

21 THE COURT: Yes. You can email my chambers.

22 MS. BROOK: Thank you.

23 The third one I have, which I'm going to expand a
24 little with the Court's permission, is we will clarify again
25 via an email to chambers the privilege log issue that the

1 parties have agreed on relating to the deposition -- the
2 discovery protocol. And to the extent there are any other
3 little things like custodians or timeframes which we're able 4 to reach agreement on, we'll update the Court of that at 5 that time as well.

6 The fourth one --

7 THE COURT: And that's by -- what date did you
8 have?

9 MS. BROOK: I don't know that you gave us a
10 timeline.

11 THE COURT: I don't think I set it. Yes.
12 Wednesday?

13 MS. BROOK: That's fine.

14 THE COURT: 5:00 p.m. Does that work for you all?

15 MR. CASARINO: That works fine, your Honor. Thank 16 you.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 MS. BROOK: The next one I have is that the Court
19 requested an update on the ongoing meets and confers with 20 OAN so that the Court knows what issues are still in dispute
21 or not. And we're meeting and conferring about that on 22 Thursday. And so I believe we can provide the Court with an 23 update on Friday or Monday, whenever is --

24 THE COURT: Yes. No later than Monday at 5:00
25 p.m.

1 MS. BROOK: Monday at 5:00 p.m.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 MS. BROOK: Thank you. I like rules.

4 THE COURT: So do I.

5 MS. BROOK: They help.

6 THE COURT: And now all of you know Rule 1, which 7 just makes me very happy.

8 MS. BROOK: And then Dominion can file a reply
9 brief on the Lambert-Byrne issue by no later than this 10 Friday --

11 THE COURT: Right.

12 MS. BROOK: -- on those issues.

13 So then the only other housekeeping agenda item
14 that Dominion has to raise with the Court, Docket No. 149 in 15 the OAN case -- that's the 2130 case -- that is a fully 16 agreed-upon amended protective order that we would 17 appreciate the Court entering. And the only reason we're 18 bugging you at all is because it has increased protections
19 for third parties.

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MS. BROOK: And as we start doing third-party
22 productions, we want to make sure we're all on the same
23 page.

24 THE COURT: Right. And I was aware of that, and I
25 will take that up in short order as well.

1 MS. BROOK: Thank you, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Anything from Defendants? Anyone?

4 MR. CASARINO: No, your Honor. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Thank you all for your time.

6 I'd like just to clear the courtroom, please, as 7 soon as practicable except I have one unrelated matter with 8 Ms. Lambert, if you could hang back. Thank you.

9 If there's any court personnel, they can stay.

10 Thank you all. Have a good day.

11 MR. CASARINO: Thank you, your Honor.

12 MR. ROSS: Thank you, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

A Lawyer has Come Forward: Dominion Voting Machines can Connect to the Internet, Can Change Votes, and Cannot be Audited

- Lawyer John Case, under penalty of perjury, files declaration to CO Judge, stating Dominion Voting machines can connect to the internet, can switch votes, and cannot be audited

Per Court Records Obtained by @yehuda\_miller on X directly from Tina Peters Trial

"Dominion voting systems (1) are not auditable, as required by federal and state law (2) they can connect to the internet during elections, which violates federal and state law; and (3) they are capable of manipulating ballots and vote tabulations, which violates federal and state law; (4) the software overwrites Windows Operating System log files that are recorded during elections, which are required by federal and state law to be preserved. All these deficiencies make Dominion voting systems illegal to use in Colorado elections."

DECLARATION OF JOHN CASE

JOHN CASE declares under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct.

1. My full name is John McLean Case. I am a practicing attorney licensed in Colorado more than 50 years. I am admitted to all Colorado Courts, U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, U.S. Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit, and U. S. Supreme Court. I have represented the former clerks and recorders of Elbert County and Mesa County, as well as county commissioners and voters from other counties, in civil litigation challenging voting systems sold in Colorado by Dominion Voting Systems, Inc. I currently represent former Mesa County Clerk and Recorder Tina Peters in 22CR371, District Court of Mesa County, the criminal case scheduled for jury trial July 30, 2024. I also represent Clerk Peters as plaintiff-appellant in civil litigation, case numbers 1:21-cv-03014-NNYW, U. S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and 24-1013 U.S. Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit.

2. I have spoken with and read reports of nationally recognized computer cybersecurity experts who examined forensic images from the hard drives of Dominion voting systems computers. Those experts, including J. Alex Halderman, Walter C. Daugherty, and Clay Parikh, have independently concluded, based on their own scientific research, that Dominion voting systems (1) are not auditable, as required by federal and state law (2) they can connect to the internet during elections, which violates federal and state law; and (3) they are capable of manipulating ballots and vote contain no trade-secret or software information. They are not commercially sensitive, because they do not relate to sales or commercial activity. Therefore, they were mislabeled by Dominion and/or its counsel and should be open to public view.

5. Even if the emails meet the definition of Confidential Discovery Material, tabulations, which violates federal and state law; (4) the software overwrites Windows Operating System log files that are recorded during elections, which are required by federal and state law to be preserved. All these deficiencies make Dominion voting systems illegal to use in Colorado elections. The independent expert findings are corroborated by Dominion emails I reviewed in 1:21-cv-02131, which show, in my opinion, that Dominion was aware it was violating election laws.

3. I am assisting Stefanie Lambert in her defense of Patrick Byrne in 1:21-cv-02131. I signed Exhibit A to Protective Order, the "Undertaking" in which I agreed to "access and use Discovery Material, Confidential Material, and Attorneys Eyes Only Material only as the [Protective] Order permits." I reviewed emails produced by Dominion in 1:21-cv-02131. The emails appear to be mis-labeled "Confidential," because their contents do not meet the definition of "Confidential Material" in paragraph 2 of the Protective Order 6/16/23.

4. Paragraph 2 of the Protective Order defines "Confidential Discovery Material" as follows:

Confidential Discovery Material is defined as material that consists of non-public customer information or information that is proprietary or otherwise commercially sensitive.

The emails that are essential to Clerk Peters' defense do not meet the definition of "Confidential Discovery Material." They are not non-public customer information, because they contain no customer information. They are not proprietary, because they

"Federal Law Constraints on Post-Election Audits" states in pertinent part:

"Jurisdictions must therefore also retain and preserve records created in digital or electronic form."

9. The charges against Clerk Peters in 22CR371 arise out of a forensic image which they do not, the jury in Mesa County should be allowed to see them under appropriate instructions from the trial court, because they are essential to Clerk Peters' defense in a criminal case in which at least one Dominion employee has been listed as a "will call" witness by the prosecution, and she faces possible incarceration if convicted.

6. I have not disclosed the Dominion emails to my client Tina Peters, or to anyone else. I believe that I have an ethical obligation to disclose the emails to my client, and to present them as evidence in 22CR371, because the Dominion emails contain exculpatory material that is vital to Clerk Peters' defense.

7. Starting in December 2020, Mesa County voters, including County Commissioner Cody Davis, asked Clerk Peters to conduct audits of the November 2020 election results in Mesa County, and the April 2021 municipal election in Grand Junction. Constituents claimed the results tabulated on Dominion machines were improbable.

8. 52 U.S.C §20701 requires all officers of election, including Clerk Peters, to preserve election records for 22 months after any federal election. There is a criminal penalty for violating this statute. Department of Justice publication 7/28/21 titled of the Mesa County election management server hard drive that was made on May 23, 2021. Colorado Deputy Secretary of State, Chris Beall, has admitted in sworn testimony that no statute or rule prohibited imaging the server at the time that the image was made.

10. Clerk Peters engaged a qualified cybersecurity consultant to make a forensic image of the server before the Trusted Build, then observe the Trusted Build, and make a second forensic image of the server after the Trusted Build. This was necessary to perform her public duty, under statutes and the U.S. and Colorado Constitutions, to preserve digital election records, and to investigate what Secretary of State personnel did to the Mesa County voting computers during the Trusted Build.

11. Imaging the server before the Trusted Build preserved all digital data still available on the hard drive that had been generated during the November 2020 election and the April 2021 Grand Junction municipal election. I say still available on the server because Dominion's recommended settings for its software causes Windows operating system log files to be overwritten during election ballot processing, which violates election record preservation laws. Comparison of the forensic image made before the

My God, I'm just noticing this..

- 1) "Dominion," a word that is the opposite of freedom and democracy.
- 2) "Changing the way people vote" - Literally changing votes.
- 3) The actual logo is a "red" vote going in, and coming out a "blue vote."

Don't believe the media when they tell you that voting can't be hacked. Download this pdf and read for your self: media.defcon.org/DEF%20CON%2027...

1. Commercially-Available Voting System Hardware Used in the U.S. Remains Vulnerable to Attack

As in previous years, the 2019 Voting Village presented a range of currently marketed touch-screen direct recording electronic (DRE), optical scan paper voting devices, paper ballot marking devices (BMDs) and electronic poll books (e-poll books). While the Village did not attempt to (and could not) provide samples of every piece of voting equipment currently in use throughout the United States, every piece of equipment at the Village is currently certified for use in at least one U.S. jurisdiction.

And once again, Voting Village participants were able to find new ways, or replicate previously published methods, of compromising every one of the devices in the room in ways that could alter stored vote tallies, change ballots displayed to voters, or alter the internal software that controls the machines. In many cases, the DEF CON participants tested equipment they had no prior knowledge of or experience with, and worked with any tools they could find - in a challenging setting with far fewer resources (and far less time) than a professional lab (or even the most casual attacker) would typically have. In most cases, vulnerabilities could be exploited under election conditions surreptitiously by means of exposed external interfaces accessible to voters or precinct poll workers (or to any other individual with brief physical access to the machines). In particular, many vectors for so-called "Advanced Persistent Threat (APT)" attacks continue to be found or replicated. This means that an attack that could compromise an entire jurisdiction could be injected in any of multiple places during the lifetime of the system.

As disturbing as this outcome is, we note that it is at this point an unsurprising result. It is well known that current voting systems, like any hardware and software running on conventional general-purpose platforms can be compromised in practice. However, it is notable - and especially disappointing - that many of the specific vulnerabilities reported over a decade earlier (in the California and Ohio studies, for example), are still present in these systems today.*

We all know they “can” go online. But under EAC, during voting, they cannot be online. These devices are rigorously tested before and after voting. Any violation you could sue dominion to the ground. All lawsuits previously were thrown out or they won almost if not all suits.

Subject: Request for a copy of John Poulos Deposition Transcript

Dear Attorney Lambert,

It is my understanding that you have recently deposed Dominion CEO John Poulos in connection with the Dominion Patrick Byrne lawsuit. As you may be aware, I joined other Michigan State Representatives and a former State Senator in filing a criminal complaint against John Poulos with several law enforcement authorities in Michigan. The criminal complaint alleges that Mr. Poulos committed 15 counts of perjury during his sworn testimony before the Michigan Senate on December 15th, 2020. We anticipate that the content of the referenced deposition would likely yield additional evidence relating to our complaint. In this light, could you please provide me and my colleagues with a copy of the transcript from your deposition of John Poulos at your earliest convenience.

Kind regards,

James DeSana

AG Nessel Rejects Call from Conspiracist Legislators for Renewed 2020 Election Investigation

 michigan.gov/ag/news/press-releases/2024/04/25/ag-nessel-rejects-call-from-conspiracist-legislators-for-renewed-2020-election-investigation

In her response, the Attorney General cited a comprehensive review of relevant materials by her department, including Poulos’ recorded testimony, the Senate Oversight Committee’s report on the November 2020 Election, individual letters from the state Representatives, former State Senator Patrick Colbeck’s letter to the Michigan State Police, and alleged evidence against Poulos.

“Based on a thorough review of all relevant material, it is clear a criminal investigation is not warranted, and I respectfully decline your request,” said Nessel in the letter.

Nessel also addressed the evidence provided by the three representatives, noting that the documents appeared to be a “carefully curated snippet” of over 2,000 documents publicly shared by criminal defendant Stefanie Lambert in violation of a protective order.

The Attorney General also referenced conclusions drawn by the Senate Oversight Committee in its own report (PDF) that dismissed claims of election fraud in Antrim County as “indefensible” and highlighted an appalling “willful ignorance” of public figures who continue to perpetrate such speculation.

Nessel reminded the representatives of the Senate Oversight Committee’s findings related to actions similar to sending these letters to the Department of Attorney General: that such actions were found by the Committee “to be misleading and irresponsible, diminishing the overall credibility of those asserting this conclusion.”
